in the two decade period from 1928 to 1948 the proletarian themes and issues underlying the chinese communist party s ideological utterances were shrouded in rhetoric designed perhaps as much to disguise as to chart actual class strategies rhetoric notwithstanding a careful analysis of such pronouncements is vitally important in following and evaluating the party s changing lines during this key revolutionary period the function of the proletariat in the complex of policy issues and leadership struggles which developed under the precarious circumstances of those years had an importance out of all proportion to labor s relatively minor role in the post 1927 communist led revolution 1 2 as the world s factory china exerts an enormous pressure on workers around the world many nations have had to adjust to a new global political and economic reality and so has china its workers and its official trade union federation have had to contend with rapid changes in industrial relations anita chan argues that chinese labor is too often viewed from a prism of exceptionalism and too rarely examined comparatively even though valuable insights can be derived by analyzing china s workforce and labor relations side by side with the systems of other nations the contributors to chinese workers in comparative perspective compare labor issues in china with those in the united states australia japan india pakistan germany russia vietnam and taiwan they also draw contrasts among different types of workplaces within china the chapters address labor regimes and standards describe efforts to reshape industrial relations to improve the circumstances of workers and compare historical and structural developments in china and other industrial relations systems contributors frederick scott bentley rutgers the state university of new jersey florian butollo friedrich schiller university germany anita chan university of technology sydney and australian national university chris king chi chan city university of hong kong yu bin chiu national pingtung university of education taiwan sean cooney university of melbourne mary huong thi evans rutgers the state university of new jersey navjote khara niagara college kevin lin university of technology sydney mingwei liu rutgers the state university of new jersey peter lund thomsen copenhagen business school and nottingham business school boy lüthje institute of social research frankfurt germany and sun yat sen university china and the east west center honolulu khalid nadvi university of manchester thomas nice australian indigenous mentoring experience tim pringle soas university of london katie quan university of california berkeley and sun yat sen university china susan j schurman rutgers the state university of new jersey kaxton siu chinese university of hong kong hong xue east china
