mehera meher is the story of an intimate divine romance between the beloved and his closest disciple the three volume hardbound set draws deeply from mehera's firsthand narrative gathered from over 200 hours of tape recordings made by the author david fenster from the years 1974 to 1982 to this he painstakingly researched and added other historical material from mehera and those close to her to create an epic 1700 page biography of avatar meher baba's foremost woman disciple this is the latest revised edition and contains numerous corrections and additions to previous editions over the past decade historians and sociologists have increasingly used visual materials in particular photographs in their work this volume brings together historians sociologists anthropologists and media and visual scholars to articulate how photography as a practice and as a visual medium can provide insights into national memory collective identities and the historical imagination this collection allows the reader to trace parallel conceptual developments occurring in the sociology and anthropology of memory and in the history and theory of photography and to illustrate the unique angles of vision these disciplines offer photographic images commonly accompany historical accounts from documentaries to family scrapbooks and since the early days of commercial photography pictures have been viewed as tools to capture memories later critical writing has challenged this equation by inverting it photos along with other archival practices were often viewed as falling short of their supposed function as vessels of memory and at times even denounced as devices that distorted memories how does photography participate in the formation and maintenance of collective identities and shared memory discourses from the family to the nation furthermore how can we begin to conceptualize photography s effects on the historical imagination of individuals and groups double exposure endeavors to answer these questions by calling attention to the variety of contexts in which images circulate and to the narratives from which they spring and which they in turn shape this is the latest volume in transaction s memory and narrative series
