The definitive introduction to history's most influential and controversial political document, updated for a new generation of readers. Since it was first written in 1848, the Communist Manifesto has been translated into more languages than any other modern text. All across the world, in countless places and idioms, it has been debated, shared, brandished, invoked, banned, burned, and even declared dead. But in an era of escalating political, economic, health, and environmental crises, Marx and Engels' fierce indictment of capitalism is more relevant than ever, and their manifesto remains required reading from the classroom to the picket line. Scholar Phil Gasper draws on his decades of teaching and organizing experience to produce a beautifully organized edition of the manifesto that brings the text to life by fully annotating the manifesto with clear historical references and explication, a glossary, and including additional related texts. Gasper provides an accessible and comprehensive reference edition suited to first-time readers and dedicated partisans alike.

The classic political treatise, The Communist Manifesto, by Friedrich Engels and Karl Marx. The Communist Manifesto, originally Manifesto of the Communist Party, is an 1848 political pamphlet by German philosophers Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels, commissioned by the Communist League and originally published in London in the German language as Manifest der kommunistischen Partei. Just as the revolutions of 1848 began to erupt, the manifesto was later recognised as one of the world's most influential political manuscripts. It presents an analytical approach to the class struggle, historical and present, and the problems of capitalism and the capitalist mode of production, rather than a prediction of communism's potential future forms. The Communist Manifesto summarises Marx and Engels' theories about the nature of society and politics, that in their own words, the history of all hitherto existing society is the history of class struggles. It also briefly features their ideas for how the capitalist society of the time would eventually be replaced by socialism and then finally communism.

The Communist Manifesto is one of the most influential pieces of political propaganda ever written. It is a summary of the whole Marxist vision of history and is the foundation document of the Marxist movement. Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels were aged 29 and 27 respectively when the Communist Manifesto was published on the eve of the 1848 revolutions. The authors had been close collaborators since 1844, and the manifesto is a condensed and incisive account of the world view they had evolved during their hectic intellectual and political involvement of the previous few years. This new edition is critically and textually up to date and includes the prefaces written by Marx and Engels subsequent to the 1848 edition.
