ranging from the georgia coast to the tennessee mountains from the power brokers to tenant farmers ayers depicts a land of startling contrasts ayers takes us from remote southern towns revolutionized by the spread of the railroads to the statehouses where democratic redeemers swept away the legacy of reconstruction from the small farmers trapped into growing nothing but cotton to the new industries of birmingham from abuse and intimacy in the family to tumultuous public meetings of the prohibitionists he explores every aspect of society politics and the economy detailing the importance of each in the emerging new south central to the entire story is the role of race relations from alliances and friendships between blacks and whites to the spread of jim crows laws and disfranchisement the teeming nineteenth century south comes to life in these pages

the age of information has spawned a critical focus on human communication in a multimedia world particularly on theories and practices of writing with the worldwide web impacting increasingly on academic and business communication the need has never been greater for advanced study in writing communication and critical thinking across all genres sectors and cultures in recent decades the definitions of new rhetoric have expanded to encompass a variety of theories and movements raising the question of how rhetoric is understood and employed in the twenty first century the essays collected here represent variations on these themes with each attempting to answer the title s deliberately provocative question addressing particularly how the classical art of rhetoric is still relevant today how it is directly related to modern technologies and the new modes of communication they have generated how rhetorical practice is informing research methodologies and teaching and learning practices in the contemporary academy
