to save her i might have to become the monster she fears a brutal beautiful finale killian broke me lily healed me this series ruined my soul in the best way reader review they call me the don of new york and they fear the name power and respect all i ve ever known since the mafia learned i wasn t asking for permission but to lily my name is nothing but the monster a truth i can t deny at the end of the day my name is killian she is someone i never anticipated a disruption to my carefully ordered world as singular as the lilies i once offered marie the woman that used to show me the light when my shadows were coming out to play i offered lily a life beyond the cage but now the darkness that made me king is closing in threatening to consume us both i can feel my past is about to destroy my present this time there s no escape the only way to keep her on track may be to become the very thing she fears a monster that can make things happen but can i protect lily from the monster when that monster is me book 3 of 3 in the cruel temptation series a dark mafia romance finale where love is tested power is dangerous and redemption may come too late high emotional stakes morally gray love and dark psychological themes read only if you re ready for scars shielded soul psychic self defence and karmic healing elena miriel there are invisible forces that pass through the body and spirit draining energy clouding the mind and diverting the soul from its purpose within these pages every word acts as a code of light reconstructing the energetic field and restoring lost inner power this is a silent call for those who feel the weight of the world without understanding its origin a guide to protection healing and spiritual sovereignty here the soul learns to raise its shields without losing its tenderness to transmute pain into awareness and fear into luminous strength each teaching leads to a profound cleansing dissolving karmic ties and reactivating the original vibration of the being this book offers no promises it offers a return to the center to clarity to self mastery when energy aligns the impossible dissolves shielded soul is a book about energetic protection a book on psychic self defence and a book on karmic healing that guides the reader towards understanding their own subtle anatomy it is also a book about the aura and chakras a book on spiritual energy and a book on energetic vampirism offering effective practices for purification and strengthening of the vital field
