upon the answers which thinkers give to the question what is man depend on the answers they give to every other question hence the importance of this matter in the world s life and future much that is current in theological discussion centers in the same inquiry it is evident that the christian must know what the bible says and dr ryder smith is supremely qualified to expound the bible teaching the author finds that the doctrine of man is implied rather than stated in holy writ he has made it his task to draw out the doctrine largely by examining the meaning of the hebrew and greek terms he has included a treatment of the septuagint because the new testament usually starts with the septuagintal use there is special treatment of the important phrase the image of god so frequently encountered in current theological discussion this is the more advantageous because dr ryder smith maintains the usage has changed since the days of the bible writers there are chapters on what ought a man to be as well as on what is a man and to the writer the former question is the more important this book which seeks to put in its right perspective the whole question of the biblical doctrine of man will take its place as the classical and fundamental treatment of this doctrine this historic book may have numerous typos and missing text purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher not indexed not illustrated 1879 edition excerpt theological meaning of aap has a certain reasoned connection with its primary or natural meaning but we make no apology for any want of complete continuity in the transition it is not our view of the thoughts and language of the bible that the religious or spiritual is developed by the human writers of it out of the natural or philosophical language of their time and that critics can trace the development we hold it a worthier view that the spirit of revelation poured new and intenser meanings as revelation advanced into the earlier and simpler language the rise of the pauline phrase the flesh for human nature under sin is in our view another striking instance of this method of the inspired writers or rather of the spirit of inspiration in them the last of the leading terms in biblical psychology which i shall notice here is heart s kapbut this term is the one least disputed in its meaning and which undergoes the least amount of change within the cycle of its use in scripture indeed it may be held to be common to all parts of the bible in the same sense it only concerns the modern reader to note what that sense is and to distinguish it in one or two particulars from the modern use of the word its prominence as a psychological term in the bible and in other ancient books is due doubtless to the centrality of the physical organ which it primarily denotes and which to the mind of antiquity bulked so much more in the human frame than the brain since in bible phrase the life is in the blood that organ which formed the centre of the distribution of the blood must have the most important place in the whole system by a very easy transition therefore heart came to signify the seat of man s collective
