in the texas miracle author john marshall offers a detailed examination of the largest political fraud in texas since the sharpstown scandal in the early 1970s an extension of his earlier book playing possum he expands on the information surrounding a massive land deal marshall offers a political look at what took place in texas in 2006 the staubach company advised the brazos river authority to begin charging a fair market rate at possum kingdom lake to the people who had built their weekend homes around the shoreline at that time the average lake lot was three quarters of an acre and the average rental rate was 76 per month in 2007 governor rick perry lt governor david dewhurst and a handful of texas legislators attempted to force the brazos river authority to sell the shoreline of possum kingdom lake to the wealthy weekenders at a discount this effort was opposed by republicans democrats and bureaucrats alike and it met a humiliating defeat two years later the weekenders and the politicians enlisted the services of the river card the texas miracle tells that tale in an age when students come to class with more varied music listening preferences and experiences than ever before music educators can find themselves at a loss for how to connect with their students listening in action provides the beginnings of a solution to this problem by characterizing students contemporary music listening experiences as they are mediated by digital technologies several components of contemporary music listening experiences are described including the relationship between music listening experiences and listener engagements with other activities listener agency in creating playlists and listening experiences as a whole and the development of adolescent identities as related to the agency afforded by music listening devices the book provides an accessible introduction to scholarship on music listening across the disciplines of musicology ethnomusicology sociology of music psychology of music and music education by reading listening in action music educators can gain an understanding of recent theories of music listening in everyday life and how those theories might be applied to bridge the gap between music pedagogies and students who encounter music in a heavily mediated postperformance world media piracy in emerging economies is the first independent large scale study of music film and software piracy in emerging economies with a focus on brazil india russia south africa mexico and bolivia based on three years of work by some thirty five researchers media piracy in emerging economies tells two overarching stories one tracing the explosive growth of piracy as digital technologies became cheap and ubiquitous around the world and another following the growth of industry lobbies that have reshaped laws and law enforcement around copyright protection the report argues that these efforts have largely failed and that the problem of piracy is better conceived as a failure of affordable access to media in legal markets
