evangelical theologians have traditionally affirmed a classical theism that emphasizes god's unchangeableness and all knowing nature recent years however have seen the development of a variety of opinions including the controversial ideas connected with open theism the contributors to this collection represent the broad range of creative thought characteristic of contemporary evangelicalism figures such as n t wright d a carson paul helm john webster and bruce mccormack discuss an array of ideas currently under debate by evangelical theologians both ministers and students of theology will find this a helpful and insightful volume the contributors offer readers a valuable look at contemporary evangelical perspectives on the doctrine of god and the importance of theology for other areas of belief and practice contains abstracts of missiological contributions book reviews and articles much controversy surrounds the opening chapters of genesis they are front loaded with all manner of vital topics such as god s work of creating the world and mankind what it means to be human why our present experience is so different from what we find in genesis 2 how we come to know god and to be sure of his love collins employs a literary theological method informed by contemporary discourse analysis in order to read passages as coherent wholes he shows how later biblical and inter testamental writers have used genesis 1 4 and reflects on how these chapters shape a christian worldview today how can we love the lord our god with all our heart soul mind and strength if we must separate our minds from our faith asks dr hugh ross in creation and time dr ross provides a solution to the creation date controversy that requires no compromise by either the scientist trusting in the facts of nature or the christian holding to the inerrancy of scripture the kingdom of david has been the focus of disagreement among biblical interpreters practically since the ascension of christ since christ was enthroned at the right hand of god the father when he ascended many believe he began ruling from that throne at that time but is this kingdom over which he rules the davidic kingdom reformed scholars say yes dispensational scholars say no a new breed of dispensational scholars say yes and no these progressive dispensationalists say jesus has inaugurated the kingdom of david but will return to the earth to consummate this kingdom with a millennial reign from jerusalem are they right this book uses psalm 110 in the old and new testaments to find an answer shows that there is an interdisciplinary way drawing on the traditional disciplines of old and new testament studies and systematic theology for the true interpretation of the bible
