one of the most comprehensive and intelligent postmodern critics of art and literature huyssen collects here a series of his essays on pomo village voice literary supplement his work remains alert to the problematic relationship obtaining between marxisms and poststructuralisms american literary history challenging and astute world literature today

huyssen's level-headed account of this controversial constellation of critical voices brings welcome clarification to today's murky haze of cultural discussion and proves definitively that commentary from the tradition of the German left has an indispensable role to play in contemporary criticism. The German Quarterly we will certainly have after reading this book a deeper understanding of the forces that have led up to the present and of the possibilities still open to us. Critical Texts: A Rich Multifaceted Study. The Year's Work in English Studies. Huyssen argues that postmodernism cannot be regarded as a radical break with the past as it is deeply indebted to that other trend within the culture of modernity: the historical avant-garde.

The neo-avant-garde of the 1950s, 60s and 70s is due for a thoroughgoing reassessment. This collection of essays represents the first full-scale attempt to deal with the concept from an interdisciplinary standpoint. A number of essays in this book concentrate on fine art, particularly painting and sculpture, thereby adding significantly to the growing art historical literature in the field. But a number of the contributions also focus on poetry, performance, theatre, film, architecture and music. Given that there are also major essays here dealing with geographical blindspots in current neo-avant-garde studies, with thematic issues such as art's entanglement with gender, mass culture and politics, with key neo-avant-garde publications and with the purely theoretical problems attaching to the theorisation of the topic, this collection offers a multi-dimensional approach to the subject which is noticeably lacking elsewhere. Taken together, these essays represent a consolidated attempt at re-thinking the cultural logic of the immediate post-World War II period.

describes his role in the Alexeiev circle, the Society of Art and Literature and the Moscow Art Theatre; his development of what became Method Acting and his relations with Anton Chekhov, Anton Rubinstein, Leo Tolstoy, Maurice Maeterlinck, Isadora Duncan and Gordon Craig.
