a guide to the press of the united kingdom and to the principal publications of europe australia the far east gulf states and the u s a

this single volume dictionary presents the lives of individual scottish women from earliest times to the present drawing on new scholarship and a wide network of professional and amateur historians it throws light on the experience of women from every class and category in scotland and among the worldwide scottish diaspora the biographical dictionary of scottish women is written for the general reading public and for students of scottish history and society it is scholarly in its approach to evidence and engaging in the manner of its presentation each entry makes sense of its subject in narrative terms telling a story rather than simply offering information the book is as enjoyable to read as it is easy and valuable to consult it is a unique and important contribution to the history of women and scotland the publisher acknowledges support from the scottish arts council and the scottish executive equalities unit towards the publication of this title this book looks at aspects of glasgow history which have hitherto been ignored or overlooked by most historians the history of women in the city existing histories are the histories of the men who made glasgow great the inventors industrialists shipbuilders philosophers and men of medicine although every schoolchild knows the legends of st mungo no one knows the legend of his mother st thenew the strong machismo culture of the west of scotland has all but obliterated the contribution of women st thenew is actually scotland s first recorded rape victim battered woman and unmarried mother from the time of her death in the seventh century until the present day there is a discernable trail of oppression and violence against women at the same time there is a history of strong and sustained resistance to persecution achievement in the face of adversity and moral triumph in the teeth of injustice this work deals with women religion and the reformation social and political status the fight for equal rights and the history of the suffragettes because of the nature of the sources more space is given to women who stood up and stood out the 16th century orray women whom the town council could not control the revolutionary women and those brave women who threw bombs burned down big houses and went on hunger strike this book provides a comprehensive overview of the work of women artists and designers in glasgow at the turn of the century it is an investigation into their lives their achievements and the historical circumstances in which they found themselves because of the breadth of its scope it has involved gathering together contributions by a number of scholars working in a variety of different specialisms several of the texts are reproduced from earlier articles which have proved so influential that it was felt they deserved to be brought to a much wider readership placed in the context of an extensive body of new writings the result is intended to offer as complete a survey of relevant scholarship in this field as is possible at the present time this book explores how citizenship is differently gendered and performed across national and regional boundaries using citizenship as its organizing concept it is a collection of multidisciplinary approaches to legal socio cultural and performative aspects of gender construction and identity violence against women victimhood and agency and everyday issues of socialization in a globalized world it brings together scholars of politics media and performance who are committed to dialogue across both nation and discipline this study is the culmination of a two year project on the topic of gendered citizenship arising from an international collaboration that has sought to develop a comparative and yet singular perspective on performance in relation to key political themes facing our countries of origin in the early decades of this century the research is interdisciplinary and multinational drawing on indian european and north and south american contexts with a full report of the various dioceses in the united states and british north america and a list of archbishops bishops and priests in ireland this book covers the flowering of the visual arts that occurred in glasgow between 1880 and 1914 featured artists include charles reddie mackintosh jessie m king george walton ernest taylor and francis newbery
