ever so often a book comes along that i feel should have been written years ago and this book is one of them as a christian who found faith in nigeria in the 80s i was intrigued by stories about god generals those men and women that led 20th century revivals across the world most of them in the west now i have in my hands a book that shares some of the stories of some of my fellow countrymen who shaped the faith landscape in nigeria i am really impressed with the diversity of the leaders identified and the depth of the research undertaken this book in my view should be a must read for anyone interested in origins of pentecostalism in nigeria keno ogbo co editor the black church in the 21st century the lord joined us to the ministry of benson idahosa for 20 years and we saw firsthand the reality and power of the gospel in africa that has touched the world the lord s sovereign work in the continent is going to impact the globe for generations to come thank god for the african church of jesus christ millions of strong and faithful believers are coming forth at this critical time as god builds his church dr kent ruth hodge president of christian faith institute jos nigeria christianity has been recognised to be a growing religion in sub sahara africa the expression of christianity that is expanding in africa is pentecostalism one reason for this growth is the renewal factor which has engulfed the whole continent nigeria is one of the countries that has and is still experiencing revival that is contributing to local and global christianity what is the origin of pentecostalism in nigeria what contributions did the late archbishop benson idahosa make to the pentecostal scene in africa why is rccg one of the fastest growing churches in the world this book considers the history of pentecostalism in nigeria by looking at the pioneering efforts of men and women who laid the foundation of the movement prophet harris the black elijah of west africa offers the only comprehensive study of the thought of william wade harris the glebo liberia loyalist whose prophetic mission from 1910 29 moved tens of thousands of west africans out of traditional religion into the stream of christianity and modernization particularly in the ivory coast it reviews that unparalleled breakthrough thoroughly examines traditional african western missionary and colonial influences which helped determine religious innovation and shape his vocation as prophet of christ s reign of peace and prosperity heretofore unused sources enriched by documents and photos expose biblical eschatological and messianic dynamics which tied harris words symbols and charisma together in a holistic african christianity the source of long standing contentions between ivoirian harrists methodists and catholics is uncovered in the well intentioned but changing colonial and missionary responses to his impact this is the first of two volumes of essays from the ecclesiological investigations international research network s 14th international conference focused on decolonizing churches and theology addressing oppressions based on gender racial and ethnic identities economic inequality social vulnerabilities climate change and global challenges such as pandemics neoliberalism and the role of information technology in modern society all connected with the topic of decolonization the essays in this volume focus on decoloniality in religious and theological dialogue migration history and education written from historical dogmatic social scientific and liturgical perspectives more than half a century has passed since the first monographs on african christian prophetism were published the prophetic element was only the most dramatic and prominent part of developments that sought to bring the biblical material alive in ways that had not been experienced in the ecclesiology of western mission christianity the ministries of african charismatic figures of the early 20th century were oriented towards the biblical phenomenon of the prophetic and the related issue of divine or faith healing sometimes even to the neglect of the use of bio medical resources the developments have been interrogated in religious studies theology and the sociology and psychology of religion showing how important these churches have been in the african public sphere
