instructions for traversing the entire vajrayana path to enlightenment from one of tibet s most famous wandering yogis composed by shabkar at the cave of miracles close to mount kailash around 1815 this compendium of spiritual instructions is written in the form of questions and answers alternating verse and prose between shabkar and his disciples it presents the essence of the entire graded path to enlightenment using tsongkhapa s great graded path lam rim chen mo as its model in twenty three pieces of advice he explains the need to renounce the world how to develop genuine compassion and methods for achieving an undistracted mind that can unite meditation on emptiness with compassion his nonsectarian approach is evident in his teachings on the nature of mind according to the mahamudra tradition of milarepa his practical explanations of saraha s songs of realization and the attainment of buddhahood without meditation which draws on the teachings of the great perfection dzogchen shabkar s style is direct and fresh his realization infuses his instructions with an authenticity that will continue to inspire buddhist practitioners for years to come the singular role of shabkar in the development of the idea of tibet shabkar 1781 1851 the singer of the land of snows was a renowned yogi and poet who through his autobiography and songs developed a vision of tibet as a buddhist imagined community by incorporating vernacular literature providing a narrative mapping of the tibetan plateau reviving and adapting the legend of tibetans as avalokiteśvara s chosen people and promoting shared buddhist values and practices shabkar s concept of tibet opened up the discursive space for the articulation of modern forms of tibetan nationalism employing analytical lenses of cultural nationalism and literary studies rachel pang explores the indigenous epistemologies of identity community and territory that predate contemporary state centric definitions of nation and nationalism in tibet and provides the definitive treatment of this foundational figure a definitive study of one of the most important practices in tibetan buddhism with translations of a number of its key texts mahamudra the great seal refers to the ultimate nature of mind and reality to a meditative practice for realizing that ultimate reality and to the final fruition of buddhahood it is especially prominent in the kagyü tradition of tibetan buddhism so it sometimes comes as a surprise that mahamudra has played an important role in the geluk school where it is part of a special transmission received in a vision by the tradition s founder tsongkhapa mahamudra is a significant component of geluk ritual and meditative life widely studied and taught by contemporary masters such as the dalai lama roger jackson s mind seeing mind offers us both a definitive scholarly study of the history texts and doctrines of geluk mahamudra and masterful translations of its seminal texts it provides a skillful survey of the indian sources of the teaching illuminates the place of mahamudra among tibetan buddhist schools and details the history and major textual sources of geluk mahamudra jackson also addresses critical questions such as the relation between geluk and kagyü mahamudra and places mahamudra in the context of contemporary religious studies the translation portion of mind seeing mind includes ten texts on mahamudra history ritual and practice among these are the first panchen lama s root verses and autocommentary on mahamudra meditation his ritual masterpiece offering to the guru and a selection of his songs of spiritual experience mind seeing mind adds considerably to our understanding of tibetan buddhist spirituality and shows how mahamudra came to be woven throughout the fabric of the geluk tradition
