the story of the title deals with a little boy named larry and his feelings towards his father when his father returns home from world war ii larry is resentful and jealous of losing his mother s undivided attention and finds himself in a constant struggle to win back her affections

the most generous one volume collection ever published of short stories autobiographical writings poetry and essays by the writer yeats called ireland s chekhov selected and arranged thematically by julian barnes the rich mix of writings in the best of frank o connor starts off with his most famous short story guests of the nation set during the irish war of independence chronicles his childhood with an alcoholic father and protective mother and traces his literary influences in brilliant essays on joyce and yeats o connor s wonderfully polyphonic tales of family friendship and rivalry are set beside those that bring to life forgotten souls on the fringes of society o connor s writings about ireland vividly evoke the land he called home while other stories probe the hardships and rewards of irish emigration finally we see o connor grappling in both fiction and memoir with the largest questions of religion and belief the best of frank o connor is a literary monument to a truly great writer chasing after a family secret a curious silence surrounding a long lost ancestor led the author on a pilgrimage through the landscape history and literature of ireland his journey of self discovery flavored by poems stories lore and legend reflects his idea that literature may be the key that explains the past and reveals the present serving as part memoir and part journalistic chronicle this work offers a unique look at how memory literature and travel shape one s definition of oneself also serving as a love letter to ireland with chapters on native born authors such as james joyce frank o connor seamus heaney and more this book explores the deeper influences of what makes a man a writer scholar adventurer husband and father liam o flaherty kate o brien elizabeth bowen sean o faolain and frank o connor as hildebidle demonstrates all five authors saw in the ireland that grew out of the events of 1916 1923 a nation that stifled the creative energies and bright hopes of its youth and their fiction can be seen as responding in diverse ways to that reality the definitive collection from an irish literary icon one of the masters of the short story newsweek in the words of w b yeats frank o connor did for ireland what chekhov did for russia anne tyler writing in the chicago sun times described his tales as encapsulated universes this indispensable volume contains the best of his short fiction from guests of the nation adapted into an obie award winning play to the mad lomasneys to first confession to my oedipus complex dublin schoolteacher ned keating waves good bye to a charming girl and to any thoughts of returning to his village home in the lyrical and melancholy uprooted a boy on an important mission is waylaid by a green eyed temptress and seeks forgiveness in his mother s loving arms in the man of the house a tale that draws on o connor s own difficult childhood a series of awkward encounters and humorous misunderstandings perfectly encapsulates the complicated legacy of irish immigration in ghosts the bittersweet account of an american family s pilgrimage to the land of their forefathers in these and dozens of other stories o connor accomplishes the miraculous laying bare entire lives and histories in the space of a few pages as a writer critic and teacher o connor elevated the short story to astonishing new heights this career spanning anthology epic in scope yet brimming with small moments and intimate details is a true pleasure to read from first page to last this volume investigates unexplored areas of o connor s work his achievements as a translator or irish language poetry his role in the debates on irish literary modernism his relationships with writers and intellectuals of his time and denis johnston s film adaptation of guests of the nation are examined the irish actor donal mccann is probably best remembered by u s audiences from film performances he gave in john huston s the dead or bertolucci s stealing beauty or perhaps his performance on broadway in neil jordan s high spirits this is a remarkable blend of reminiscences anecdotes and images providing a series of fascinating glimpses into the life and personality of the late actor some of the contributors include gabriel byrne hugh leonard sinead cusack paul durcan deidre purcell and eamon kelly
