this volume represents a major critique of the way malthusian thinking has influenced capitalist development policy in the modern period as well as in the past it highlights the strategic role of malthusian ideas in the defence of capitalist political economy when confronted by struggles for equality and human progress the leading historical example the author takes offers a major reassessment of the origins of the irish famine his contemporary case study focuses on the green revolution which the author analyzes in terms of a broad western strategy of capitalist agricultural development in the face of peasant insurgency finally the book examines how the political economy of underdevelopment is currently being obscured by alarm over the environmental impact of over population and how such malthusian concerns represent the poor not as victims of capitalist development but as perpetrators of environmental destruction the encyclopedia of world poverty provides extensive and current information as well as insight into the contemporary debate on poverty the three volumes of this state of the art encyclopedia contain over 800 original articles written by more than 125 renowned scholars the entries contributing to this work explore poverty in various regions of the world and examine the difficulties associated with the definition and measurement of poverty along with its causes and effects it has been said that the poor will always be with us but that does not mean we are obliged to ignore squalor concern about poverty stretches across national borders from the third world to the street corners of manhattan whether one believes the poor are victims of their own shortcomings or of poor public policy the impoverished cannot be ignored this book collects a set of essays exploring the unavoidable issue of poverty a broad array of scholars present studies and opinions about where the poor come from and what we can do to help them this book is an important engaging and provocative contribution to the land reform literature using empirical case materials from the philippines it combines re thinking of key concepts and debates on redistributive land reform with skilful case analysis of reform implementation processes discusses the views of great thinkers from 1750 to 1850 including adam smith thomas carlyle thomas paine edmund burke charles dickens benjamin disraeli and friedrich engels toward the condition of the poor in england
