how do evangelism and social concern relate to one another in the mission of the church how should the old testament's emphasis on social justice inform the praxis of modern believers does the bible emphasize individual salvation or does it teach a broader more inclusive concept theologians missiologists pastors and educators have wrestled with these questions for centuries but especially since the early part of the twentieth century this debate has increasingly become a point of contention among evangelical christians with few indications that a consensus may soon be forthcoming yet few have offered so thorough an answer to these questions as has carl f h henry henry's regenerational model of evangelism and social concern stands on the shoulders of augustine and many others and offers what may be the best way forward this book explores henry's thoughts on this subject and sets him in dialogue with numerous others who have written on these topics thus it will prove a valuable resource for all interested in this topic
