at the outset of the twentieth century lenin argued that materialism has to change its form with each new scientific discovery today argues slavož žižek in this major new work we should apply this stricture to lenin himself philosophical materialism has not yet risen to the challenge of relativity theory and quantum physics or breakthroughs like freudian psychoanalysis and we need hardly mention the failure of actually existing communism in absolute recoil žižek proposes a new foundation for dialectical materialism that answers these fundamental challenges this book is the first volume to bring together the most prominent scholars who work on slavož žižek s philosophy examining and interrogating his understanding of dialectical materialism it deserves to be thoroughly and systematically elaborated because it attempts to propose a new foundation for dialectical materialism on Žižek s dialectics explores the theoretical and practical potential of the psychoanalytic method deployed by slavož Žižek by investigating its epistemological implications within our contemporary capitalist universe the book begins by evaluating žižek s account of the capitalist ideology of enjoyment through the analysis of lacan s critique of marx s surplus value if the originality of Žižek s wager lies in the claim that enjoyment secretly sustains our ideological space can we think of surplus jouissance in a way that not only unmasks the ruse of capitalism but also adumbrates the construction of an alternative social space the answer to this question is developed in the second part of the book arguing that the transformative potential of žižek s epistemology needs to be fully unravelled if it is to avoid the risk of congealing into mere academic exercise fabio vighi attempts to politicise Žižek s groundbreaking critical method by calling upon the necessity to translate its emphasis on the indigestible surplus of knowledge into the drive to think the new under the current conditions this creative moment can no longer be delayed in the most rigorous articulation of his philosophical system to date slavoj Žižek provides nothing short of a new definition of dialectical materialism in forging this new materialism Žižek critiques and challenges not only the work of alain badiou robert brandom joan copjec quentin meillassoux and julia kristeva to name but a few but everything from popular science and quantum mechanics to sexual difference and analytic philosophy alongside striking images of the möbius strip the cross cap and the klein bottle Žižek brings alive the hegelian triad of being essence notion radical new readings of hegel and kant sit side by side with characteristically lively commentaries on film politics and culture here is Žižek at his interrogative best in Žižek s long awaited magnum opus he theorizes the parallax gap in the ontological the scientific and the political and rehabilitates dialectical materialism the parallax view is slavoj Žižek s most substantial theoretical work to appear in many years Žižek himself describes it as his magnum opus parallax can be defined as the apparent displacement of an object caused by a change in observational position Žižek is interested in the parallax gap separating two points between which no synthesis or mediation is possible linked by an impossible short circuit of levels that can never meet from this consideration of parallax Žižek begins a rehabilitation of dialectical materialism modes of parallax can be seen in different domains of today s theory from the wave particle duality in quantum physics to the parallax of the unconscious in freudian psychoanalysis between interpretations of the formation of the unconscious and theories of drives in the parallax view Žižek with his usual astonishing erudition focuses on three main modes of parallax the ontological difference the ultimate parallax that conditions our very access to reality the scientific parallax the irreducible gap between the phenomenal experience of reality and its scientific explanation which reaches its apogee in today s brain sciences according to which nobody is home in the skull just stacks of brain meat a condition Žižek calls the unbearable lightness of being no one and the political parallax the social antagonism that allows for no common ground between his discussions of these three modes Žižek offers interludes that deal with more specific topics including an ethical act in a novel by henry james and anti anti semitism the parallax view not only expands Žižek s lacanian hegelian approach to new domains notably cognitive brain sciences but also provides the systematic exposition of the conceptual framework that underlies his entire work philosophical and theological analysis detailed readings of literature cinema and music coexist with lively anecdotes and obscene jokes anything new really happening drawing on references from plato to arthouse cinema the big bang to buddhism event is a journey into philosophy at its most exciting and elementary slavoj Žižek is a hegelian philosopher lacanian psychoanalyst and communist political activist he is the author of numerous books on dialectical materialism critique of ideology and art his main work is less than nothing a study on the actuality of hegelian dialectics psychoanalysis is less merciful than christianity where god the father forgives our ignorance psychoanalysis holds out no such hope ignorance is not a sufficient ground for forgiveness since it masks enjoyment an enjoyment which erupts in those black holes in our symbolic universe that escape the father's prohibition today with the disintegration of state socialism we are witnessing this eruption of enjoyment in the re emergence of aggressive nationalism and racism with the lid of repression lifted the desires that have emerged are far from democratic to explain this apparent paradox says slavoj žižek socialist critical thought must turn to psychoanalysis for they know not what they do seeks to understand the status of enjoyment within ideological discourse from hegel through lacan to these political and ideological deadlocks the author's own enjoyment of popular culture makes this an engaging and lucid exposition in which hegel joins hands with rossellini marx with hitchcock lacan with frankenstein high theory with hollywood melodrama parallax or the change in the position of an object viewed along two different lines of sight and more precisely the assumption that this adjustment is not only due to a change of focus but a change in that object's ontological status has been a key philosophical concept throughout history building upon slavoj Žižek's the parallax view this volume shows how parallax is used as a figure of thought that proves how the incompatibility between the physical and the theoretical touches not only upon the ontological but also politics and aesthetics with articles written by internationally renowned philosophers such as frank ruda graham harman paul livingston and žižek himself this book shows how modes of parallax remain in numerous modern theoretical disciplines such as the marxian parallax in the critique of political economy and politics and the hegelian parallax in the concept of the work of art while also being important to debates surrounding speculative realism and dialectical materialism spanning philosophy parallax is then a rich and fruitful concept that can illuminate the studies of those working in epistemology ontology german idealism political philosophy and critical theory this essay offers up a provocative new theoretical tack on the topic area of the dialectic of capital the dialectic of cruelty and the dialectic of power and of their intricate and self differential inter relationships and forms of being under late capitalism as delineated in selected narratives of two major occidental novelists henry james and his key paper friend honoré de balzac it does so from a genuinely inter disciplinary perspective that draws from heterogeneous waves of critical theory broadly conceived having thus something to say to contemporary culture both of general and of academic interest alike key concepts elucidated and fleshed out in the work for the first time in a volume length and systematic way in the study of the humanities in order to get the show on the road include the theoretical notions and arguments of true power and capital as 'un power' 'non power' 'un capital' and 'non capital' other suchlike examples punctuate the essay that attempt to meet precise theoretical and practical requirements for a twenty first century increasingly submitted to the logic of capitalist power the present study also thus offers new ways of thinking about the enormous and age long subject of big power and capital that would in the final tally want to align itself with such prophetic traditions of thought as what gilles deleuze and Félix guattari for example have termed 'the new earth' the concept of disparity has long been a topic of obsession and argument for philosophers but slavoj Žižek would argue that what disparity and negativity could mean might mean and should mean for us and our lives has never been more hotly debated disparities explores contemporary negative philosophies from catherine malabou's plasticity julia kristeva's abjection and robert pippin's self consciousness to the god of negative theology new realisms and post humanism and draws a radical line under them instead of establishing a dialogue with these other ideas of disparity slavoj Žižek wants to establish a definite departure a totally different idea of disparity based on an imaginative dialectical materialism this notion of rupturing what has gone before is based on a provocative reading of how philosophers can if they're honest engage with each other slavoj Žižek borrows alain badiou's notion that a true idea is the one that divides radically departing from previous formulations of negativity and disparity Žižek employs a new kind of negativity namely positing that when a philosopher deals with another philosopher his or her stance is never one of dialogue but one of division of drawing a line that separates truth from falsity
