from a fresh independent voice comes a collection of nine stories built on powerful emotional ground what does it take to forge self identity confront the past shatter personal myths and live an authentic life in dreaming in fields of killer sheep these questions are weaved throughout narratives in which individuals willing to face conflict both external and internal gain glimpses of truth in the shadows an everyman confronts a sexual predator in a department store and faces a dark reality lying just beneath the surface of his psyche a political staffer returns to her childhood home for a funeral and discovers disturbing news that challenges her to act an opportunist seeking an easy way out of trouble unexpectedly faces a choice of being an accomplice to unknown evil or an improbable hero and in the title story a young advertising executive crashes from his ascent into a sea of questions about what being authentic really means these and other tales in this collection challenge us to look beyond the obvious into dimly lit margins where truth and perception aren't so easily divided and where the battle for self is joined it was august of 1947 when two little girls met for the first time spotting each other across back yards little did they know it was the beginning of a lifelong journey in sandra and me author phyllis strickland shares the memories of a lifetime friendship spent with her best friend sandra miller who passed away from cancer together they shared the fun mischief and playtime of early childhood they skipped merrily through their adolescence delighting in their adventures and overcoming teenage tragedies they entered adulthood married and raised and educated their children while carving out careers phyllis and sandra moved cautiously into old age and discovered the joys of senior citizenship through it all they leaned on each other for guidance and support they experienced life s lessons together and honored each other s secrets until death this memoir offers a humorous look at a friendship spanning nearly seventy years its abrupt conclusion and the inexpressible grief felt by those left behind it serves as the fulfillment of a promise made to sandra that their lifetime spent together would be written down to offer to all who knew this special lady a glimpse of parts of her life they may not have known
