for centuries the asians chinese indians muslims and others have been bystanders in world history now they are ready to become co drivers asians have finally understood absorbed and implemented western best practices in many areas from free market economics to modern science and technology from meritocracy to rule of law they have also become innovative in their own way creating new patterns of cooperation not seen in the west will the west resist the rise of asia the good news is that asia wants to replicate not dominate the west for a happy outcome to emerge the west must gracefully give up its domination of global institutions from the imf to the world bank from the g7 to the un security council history teaches that tensions and conflicts are more likely when new powers emerge this too may happen but they can be avoided if the world accepts the key principles for a new global partnership spelled out in the new asian hemisphere regionalism in the asia pacific is a complex and rapidly evolving phenomenon this volume explores the relationship between globalization and regionalization between states markets and civil society and between us hegemony and asian aspirations the remarkable economic growth of asia has been the defining feature of the second half of this century this book offers a comprehensive overview of the scientific technological and economic factors which enabled asia to make such a strong comeback after centuries of oppression this historical survey offers useful lessons for the future and guides predictions for how asia might face up to the new challenges of the next millennium aims to demonstrate how a new asia can be built through the adoption of the new asian way drawing on lessons from both the east and the west shows how modern methods of wealth creation governance and technology have all been developed by the west and investigates how asia can learn from these achievements while maintaining the best of traditional cultural values in new asian disorder rivalries embroiling the pacific century lowell dittmer and his team explore the recent political disorder in east asia resulting from growing sino american polarization the rise of china in recent years is widely regarded as a momentous shift in the global balance of power china is now extending sovereignty into the east china sea and the south china sea constructing a new set of global financial institutions and replacing universal values with technologically enhanced nationalism the country's belt and road initiative is also tainted by the vast ambition to realize the china dream within the foreseeable future in response to china's challenge the united states has abandoned its constructive engagement policy towards the rising power and engaged in a trade war sino american relations have been at a historical trough since the normalization of their relationship in the late 1970s this book sheds new light on the current political disorder in the east asian international arena the new asian disorder is analyzed from three perspectives the first focuses on identity the second on political economy and the third on the triangular dynamic this collection of essays concludes that unless and until consensus can be reached on a coherent new framework for cooperation and rule enforcement among different stakeholders in east asia the current disorder may be expected to persist focusing on the impact of xi jinping and donald trump this book sees rivalries undermining the post cold war order but not leading to a full breakdown stress is on identities strategies and triangles related to the sino us rivalry dittmer argues that these factors will drive further changes readers will find a diversity of approaches on a most critical bilateral relationship gilbert rozman princeton university editor of the asan forum a great read to better comprehend the new asian disorder that the growing china us rivalry has been contributing to as well as its implications for the other actors of the region be they big as japan or smaller as australia southeast asian nations or taiwan jean pierre cabestan hong kong baptist university senior research fellow of the french research institute on east asia inalco paris
