the night can be a very lonely time for animals who wake at sunset one grumpy owl longs for a friend but only the moon seems to be awake so late the moon is there on even the darkest nights but can a friend be a friend from so far away celebrating 30 years of the beloved classic owl moon from renowned children's book author Jane Yolen and Caldecott medal winning illustrator John Schoenherr late one winter night a little girl and her father go owling the trees stand still as statues and the world is silent as a dream whoo whoo whoo the father calls to the mysterious nighttime bird but there is no answer wordlessly the two companions walk along for when you go owling you don't need words you don't need anything but hope sometimes there isn't an owl but sometimes there is distinguished author jane yolen has created a gentle poetic story that lovingly depicts the special companionship of a young child and her father as well as humankind's close relationship to the natural world wonderfully complemented by john schoenherr's soft exquisite watercolor illustrations this is a verbal and visual treasure perfect for reading aloud and sharing at bedtime though the setting for an owl on the moon is manufactured the emotions expressed throughout are those faced by the author for over ten years as he encountered a deep veil of depression an owl on the moon is the story of one woman's search for life and a man's desperate attempt to escape life bringing them together at an inn by a relentless sea the story is filled with lyrical prose poetry and abstract images to enhance the fears and feelings of hopelessness faced by so many it is the author's desire that this book will become a catalyst for healing and hope the author of owl moon devil's arithmetic and how do dinosaur's say good night jane yolen has been called the hans christian andersen of america and the aesop of the 20th century in jane yolen fans of this award winnin
