life death the faces and places between is a collection of 57 poems created over six years between 1997 and 2003 expressed from the perspective of a man in his mid to late twenties the poems examine life and death through various poetic styles and viewpoints probing into territories both familiar and uncommon the book tackles a variety of subjects from hate crimes to love ballads from surviving cancer to surviving 9 11 from nature to the nature of man all set against the backdrop of what it is to live in these unpredictable times it s a reflection of the world and encourages the reader to look beyond the surface for greater meaning the poems were inspired by first hand experiences observations of others and thoughts that seemed to spill out upon the page it is a fascinating and vulnerable exploration told through poetry the places between words is a collection of poetry about the barriers of our own minds as well as those we face within society the poems illustrate how our insecurities and ruminations can make us feel completely adrift at times but they also show what we have to hold onto in those moments of self doubt whether that be the people around us daydreams about our surroundings or perhaps most of all words themselves this collection is meant to be a safe space and to validate the quiet voices the ones that rarely raise above a whisper because a whisper is still a voice and it deserves to be heard
