this book is for those intrigued by the arizal s lurianic kabbalah confused by the debates over kabbalah s authenticity fascinated by how centuries old kabbalistic ideas converge with modern science challenged by how the technological changes around us fit in with torah and kabbalah desiring resolution of the ongoing debates over key ideas in jewish thought curious to understand exactly who and what the messiah is of the few genuine introductions to kabbalah shomer emunim stands out prominently for its clarity brevity and accessibility penned in the late 1720s by the master italian kabbalist rabbi yosef ergas its virtues have been extolled by kabbalists of note ever since shomer emunim powerfully responds to those who claim kabbalah was fabricated it also explains kabbalistic concepts simply dispelling the illegitimate views of those encouraging blasphemous religious compromise by distorting those concepts the original shomer emunim hebrew text together with its complete facing page english translation and commentary is presented in an innovative and easily digestible format this e book contains words in hebrew which may not display correctly on all e reader devices pardes rimonim the orchard of pomegranates is the magnum opus of rabbi moshe cordovero ramak 1522 1570 written in safed in the mid 16th century it is the first systematic encyclopedia of kabbalah in which ancient mystical teachings were gathered and organized into a coherent system the title of the book is symbolic the pomegranate with its hundreds of seeds represents the multitude of mysteries and meanings contained within the torah and the cosmos like a garden filled with diverse fruits kabbalah is presented in the book as a holistic harmonious teaching across 32 gates ramak guides the reader through key areas of mystical thought from the doctrine of the one god and the ten sefirot to the structure of spiritual worlds angels and demons the nature of the soul the meaning of commandments and the mystery of future redemption this book blends philosophical clarity with poetic inspiration it opens a path not only to understanding kabbalah but also to experiencing it as a living reality where each step of the seeker brings them closer to the infinite there are books written in ink and there are books written in light pardes rimonim is not merely the treatise of a sage it is a garden into which one enters with a bare heart there branches intertwine like the paths of the sefirot there pomegranates hang heavy with fruit each seed holding a secret each seed a part of the whole rabbi moshe cordovero the great ramak opened the gates of this garden in safed where the air was filled with hymns and revelations and gathered all the voices of kabbalah so that in one place they might sing a symphony of infinity here we learn that god is one that his light shines through ten vessels that the human soul is bound to the roots of creation and that every commandment every prayer is a thread mending the fabric of the world but this garden is not only a solace it is also a challenge for the deeper we wander its paths the more we realize behind the first mystery lies a second behind the second a third and so on endlessly until we dissolve into ein sof whoever enters this garden with an open heart will hear the leaves whisper eternal names and perhaps find there their own fruit sweet and radiant like a spark of the soul explains the meaning behind the forty two letters that make up the prayer known as ana bekho ah and describes how to use the prayer effectively to achieve joy fulfillment and spiritual enlightenment
