ecology has become one of the most urgent and lively fields in both the humanities and sciences in a dramatic widening of scope beyond its original concern with the coexistence of living organisms within a natural environment it is now recognized that there are ecologies of mind information sensation perception power participation media behavior belonging values the social the political a thousand ecologies this proliferation is not simply a metaphorical extension of the figurative potential of natural ecology rather it reflects the thoroughgoing imbrication of natural and technological elements in the constitution of the contemporary environments we inhabit the rise of a cybernetic natural state with its corresponding mode of power hence this ecology of ecologies initiates and demands that we go beyond the specificity of any particular ecology a general thinking of ecology which may also constitute an ecological transformation of thought itself is required in this ambitious and radical new volume of writings some of the most exciting contemporary thinkers in the field take on the task of revealing and theorizing the extent of the ecologization of existence as the effect of our contemporary sociotechnological condition together they bring out the complexity and urgency of the challenge of ecological thought one we cannot avoid if we want to ask and indeed have a chance of affecting what forms of life agency modes of existence human or otherwise will participate and how in this planet s future twelve authors share their secrets for personal transformation and empowerment thesis m a from the year 2005 in the subject american studies literature grade 2 7 university of frankfurt main language english abstract starting with the realistic short fiction i will show gilman s main ideas to resolve typical problems of women with the example of some selected stories i resolved to treat them not in chronological order but to delineate the structural changes in the different levels of social organization that are to be discerned moreover i decided to use two narratives in each subdivision because choosing only one would not do justice to the scope of gilman s imagination and would reduce the findings to be made so for example in both writings of each partition changes take place in varying degrees and are initiated by different types of characters the first stories making a change and a garden of babies illustrate the imagined transformation of middle class women and the betterment of their situation by gainful employment in addition martha s mother and forsythe forsythe promote changed living conditions as well whereas the next two stories three thanksgivings and mrs hines money describe possibilities of human intercourse and the influence of reform clubs on society the last pair aunt mary s pie plant and bee wise take women s united power to a more utopian extreme and most fully fictionalize the author s theories as short stories similarly in the fifth chapter there will be an intensification of gilman s utopian thinking that is curiously more analogous to the year of publication the selected pragmatopian novels the crux and what diantha did are followed up by the two utopian works moving the mountain and herland the sequel of the latter and her last published novel with her in ourland 1916 however is a dystopia and therefore left out here in this negative utopia gilman mainly criticizes the contemporary situation it seems to reflect that as golden and knight state
