the novels of paul auster have captured the imagination of readers and the admiration of many critics of contemporary literature in beyond the red notebook the first book devoted to the works of auster an international group of scholars provide a rich and insightful examination of auster s writings paul auster is one of the most acclaimed figures in american literature known primarily as a novelist auster s films and various collaborations are now gaining more recognition evija trofimova offers a radically different approach to the author s wider body of work unpacking the fascinating web of relationships between his texts and presenting auster s canon as a rhizomatic facto fictional network produced by a set of writing tools exploring auster s literal and figurative use of these tools the typewriter the cigarette the doppelgänger figure the city evija trofimova discovers auster s writing machine a device that works both as a means to write and as a construct that manifests the emblematic writer figure this is a book about assembling texts and textual networks the writing machines that produce them and the ways such machines invest them with meaning embarking on a scholarly quest that takes her from between the lines of auster s work to between the streets of his beloved new york and finally to the man himself paul auster s writing machine becomes not just a critical investigation but a critical collaboration raising important questions about the ultimate meaning of auster s work and about the relationship between texts their authors their readers and their critics this work links ethics and the formal arrangement of literary texts it shows that specific formal techniques and devices and the overall form of literary texts always have an ethical dimension and beg certain ethical questions covering the three main genres of narrative drama and poetry the discussion addresses aspects of syntax line breaks mise en scene and narrative situation as well as the table of contents list of characters and chapter structure in six texts by contemporary american authors paul auster don delillo tony kushner suzan lori parks john ashbery and jorie graham mystery fiction takes place in a centered world one whose most distinctive characteristic is motivation of behavior and signs built on a faith in foundations it insists upon the solidity of social life the validity of social conventions and the sanctity of signs mystery assures us that motives exist for both words and deeds
