a new and transforming approach to the book of revelation margaret barker bases her study on a fresh reading of the primary sources as an old testament scholar she can read revelation as hebrew prophecy ancient temple oracles which inspired jesus and his own prophecies and influenced the whole jerusalem church jerusalem was waiting for their great high priest to return and complete the atonement at the end of the tenth jubilee this expectation fuelled the revolt against rome josephus who deserted to rome was the false prophet john who escaped to patmos compiled revelation as a record of the first generation in the future he taught the lord would return to his people in the eucharist this work illuminates the formative years of christianity in the social religious and political situation of mid first century palestine in a quite remarkable way it will have profound implications for the understanding of christian origins and the development of christian liturgy

in the crucial revelation of life in the scriptures witness lee speaks of the central biblical truth of knowing and experiencing christ as life throughout the bible the availability of christ as life is progressively revealed the old testament presents many types of christ as our life supply and the new testament clearly speaks of the believers being saved in his life by the spirit of life
