this major work reveals the dark heart of the history of the stolen generations in australia it shows that from the earliest times of european colonization aboriginal australians experienced the trauma of loss and separation as their children were abducted enslaved institutionalized and culturally remodeled providing a moving and comprehensive account of this tragic history this study covers all australian colonies states and territories the analysis spans 200 years of white occupation and intervention from the earliest seizure of aboriginal children through their systematic state removal and incarceration and on to the harsh treatment of families under the assimilation policies of the 1950s and 1960s the resistance struggle and achievements of aboriginal people in defending their communities regaining their rights and mending the broken circles of family life provides a compelling parallel story of determination and courage

it contemplates why these agreements were forged how the aboriginal people understood their terms why government repudiated them and how settlers claimed to be the rightful owners of the land bain attwood also reveals the ways in which the settler society has endeavoured to make good its act of possession by repeatedly creating histories that have recalled or repressed the memory of batman the treaties and the aborigines destruction and dispossession and charts how aboriginal people have unsettled this matter of history
