have you ever wondered what you were before you were born or what will happen after you dematerialize away in death from this physical dimension quite often one part of your mind tells you that after you die you are going to be judged by god and after the judgment you will spend the rest of your existence in an uncomfortable place called hell or a place of pleasure called heaven the question is how exactly did christ define our existence to understand our true nature we have analyzed many important statements made by christ concerning this issue this nature reveals our true identities in the spirit what we really are what we are capable of where we came from and where we re heading as spiritual individuals we have also tapped into the realm of the spirit by making it substantial to get answers not just to everything in existence but also to things unheard of in this record the author reflects on his spiritual identity despite the tragic reality of the continuing israeli arab conflict and deep rooted beliefs that the chasm between israeli jews and israeli arabs is unbridgeable this book affirms the bonds between the two communities rachel feldhay brenner demonstrates that the literatures of both ethnic groups defy the ideologies that have obstructed dialogue between the two peoples brenner argues that literary critics have ignored the variety and the dissent in the novels of both arab and jewish writers in israel giving them interpretations that embrace the politics of exclusion and conform with zionist ideology brenner offers insightful new readings that compare fiction by jewish writers amos oz a b yehoshua david grossman and others with fiction written in hebrew by such arab israeli writers as atallah mansour emile habiby and anton shammass this parallel analysis highlights the moral and psychological dilemmas faced by both the jewish victors and the arab vanquished and brenner suggests that the hope for release from the historical trauma lies on both sides in reaching an understanding with and of the adversary drawing upon the theories of walter benjamin jacques lacan sigmund freud emanuel levinas and others inextricably bonded is an innovative and illuminating examination of literary dissent from dominant ideology
