this book as well as all other books and manuscripts published or yet unpublished written by the author began after a dream experience in which i was encouraged to write at that time it didn t seem possible that i could do such a thing however after other inner and outer experiences having taken place the process of writing began although at first i wasn t sure of what i would be writing about for the writings were somehow inspired one dream experience of which one is not likely to forget is the one where a being of an higher inner realm whispered in my ear saying you are chosen but what for i wasn t sure at that time another similar dream was one in which i was given the word to bring back again at that time i wasn t sure what that meant however after several manuscripts were written and reread by me things began to fit into place that is the dream experiences were becoming a reality although the writings must speak for themselves i feel now that i was chosen to present the word the word of the transonic consciousness which is the word embracing the realm of the end and the beginning of a cycle of time the transonic word then is the word that takes in the harvesting of a previous cycle of time and the word for the beginning of a new cycle of time therefore the word is the everlasting word the everlasting gospel as it were inasmuch as the word is the everlasting word it is backed by an infinity of beings within the inner and outer realms of being the mystical teachings of ibn arabi particularly influential in anatolia are rooted in a tens of thousands of years old knowledge attainment and transfer tradition which is one of the fundamental cornerstones of sufism through his unique method muhyiddin ibn arabi performed an unparalleled role in conveying the secrets of the sufi mystical teachings across the generations the secrets concealed in his teachings are not immediately revealed and the knowledge they contain is hidden in such language that those who encounter it are often left in a state of shock and bewilderment those who strived to understand this language have been able to discover the real meaning hidden within yet the majority without making such an effort took the meaning at face value and accused ibn arabi of being anti religious the title of this book the enlightened are not bound by religion is one of arabi s notable sayings to be able to understand just this saying requires knowledge of many subjects of the mystical teachings kevser yesiltash explores the deep of mystical secrets of his saying in the book the postcolonial condition of names and naming practices in southern africa represents a milestone in southern african onomastic studies the contributors here are all members of and speakers of the cultures and languages they write about and together they speak with an authentic african voice on naming issues in the southern part of the african continent the volume s overarching thesis is that names are important yet often underestimated socio politico cultural sites on which some of the most significant events and processes in the post colony can be read the onomastic topics covered in the book range from the names of traditional healers and male aphrodisiacs to urban landscapes and street naming from the interface between chinese and african naming practices to the names of bands of musicians and mini bus taxis there is a strong section on literary onomastics which explores how names have been variously deployed by southern african fiction writers for certain semantic aesthetic and ideological effects the cultures and languages covered in this volume are equally wide ranging and while some authors focus on single languages and cultures for example thembu xhosa shona others look at inter cultural influences such as the influence of the portuguese and chinese languages on shona naming written by professor adrian koopman emeritus professor university of kwazulu natal
