Tanith Lee is one of the most thought-provoking and imaginative authors of our time. In this unforgettable, poignant novel, Lee has created a classic tale: a beautiful, tragic, sensual, and ultimately triumphant love story of the future. Love is made of more than mere flesh and blood; for sixteen-year-old Jane, life is a mystery she despairs of ever mastering. She and her friends are the idle, pampered children of the privileged class, living in luxury on an Earth remade by natural disaster. Until Jane's life is changed forever by a chance encounter with a robot minstrel with auburn hair and silver skin whose songs ignite in her a desperate and inexplicable passion. Jane is certain that silver is more than just a machine built to please, and she will give up everything to prove it. So she escapes into the city's violent, decaying slums to embrace a love bordering on madness or is it something more has jane glimpsed in silver something no one else has dared to see not even the robot or his creators a love so perfect it must be destroyed for no human could ever compete jane has it all clothes money and a beautiful home high above the city but her safe little world is shattered the minute she meets silver brilliant witty a gifted musician kind understanding and gorgeous silver is the perfect man except that he is a robot jane wants silver like she s never wanted anything or anyone before but it s different with robots you can t just ask them out you have to buy them jane s best friend egyptia already owns him and she is enjoying her new toy very much consumed by love s fever jane sells everything she has and makes promises she can t keep to possess silver she leaves her suburban mansion in the clouds for the ancient inner city slums jane and her silver metal lover rent a dingy apartment together they scrape for a living and sing for their supper but people and robots were not meant to be lovers the powers that be are jealous of machine love will jane and silver escape the robophobe s revenge can their flesh and metal union survive the slings and arrows of an intolerant high tech world cover jane a sixteen year old of the future falls in love with silver an experimental robot so man like that its manufacturer must recall it trina robbins graphic novel adaptation of tanith lee s timeless science fiction romance novel the silver metal lover the story centers around a young girl in the far flung future who falls in love with a robot this is the first and only reprint since it s initial publication in 1985 publisher as an orphan growing up in the slums loren read her clandestine copy of jane s story over and over relishing every word but loren is no jane savvy and street smart loren could never be stirred by a man of metal her passion never ignited by an almost human even one designed for pleasure still when the meta corporation does the unthinkable and brings back updated versions of robots past loren knows she must see silver and just like jane it is love at first sight but silver is now verlis if he was perfection before he is now like a god yet he is more human than his creators think or fear while loren doesn t quite trust him she will follow her twice born lover into a battle to control his own destiny one that will reveal to her the most astonishing illusion of all

contains faces under water and saint fire
