the vow to perfect oneself in order to perfect others is called the thought of enlightenment or bodhichitta this implies that every single action word or thought even the most trivial is dedicated to the good of all beings to accomplish the good of others we must first perfect ourselves by purifying and transforming our minds this is the aim of what we call the preliminary practices which establish the foundations of all spiritual progress in this book dilgo khyentse rinpoche explains a key practice text composed by jamyang khyentse wangpo 1820 1892 on the vajrayana preliminaries taking refuge generating the thought of achieving enlightenment for the sake of all beings performing the meditation and recitation of vajrasattva to remove hindrances on the path to enlightenment offering the mandala to accumulate merit and wisdom and developing proper reliance on a spiritual teacher clear direct and personal these instructions illuminate the heart of vajrayana practice included here are the tibetan text as well as the mantras and prayers commonly recited in conjunction with this practice a key resource for modern day tibetan buddhists this lucid and engaging commentary distills the age old wisdom of atisha s celebrated overview of the buddhist path atisha the eleventh century indian buddhist scholar and saint came to tibet at the invitation of the king of western tibet lha lama yeshe wo and his nephew jangchub wo his coming initiated the period of the second transmission of buddhism to tibet formative for the sakya kagyu and gelug traditions of tibetan buddhism atisha s most celebrated text lamp for the path to enlightenment sets forth the entire buddhist path within the framework of three levels of motivation on the part of the practitioner atisha s text thus became the source of the lamrim tradition or graduated stages of the path to enlightenment an approach to spiritual practice incorporated within all schools of tibetan buddhism the great treatise on the stages of the path to enlightenment lam rim chen mo is one of the brightest jewels in the world s treasury of sacred literature the author tsong kha pa 1357 1419 completed this masterpiece in 1402 and it soon became one of the most renowned works of spiritual practice and philosophy in the world of tibetan buddhism tsong kha pa took great pains to base his incisive insights on the classical indian buddhist literature illustrating his points with classical citations as well as with sayings of the masters of the earlier kadampa tradition in this way the text demonstrates clearly how tibetan buddhism carefully preserved and developed the indian buddhist traditions volume one covers all practices that are prerequisite for developing the spirit of enlightenment bodhicitta volume two explains how to train in the six perfections in order to develop the heart of compassion indispensable for any student who wants to put the dharma into practice volume three contains a presentation of the two most important topics to be found in the great treatise meditative serenity shamatha and supramundane insight into the nature of reality vipasyana this second volume of the five volume commentary by the renowned buddhist scholar geshe lhundub sopa focuses on the key buddhist concepts of karma or cause and effect and dependent origination considered one of the finest living buddhist scholars geshe sopa provides commentaries essential for anyone interested in a sound understanding of tibetan buddhist practice and philosophy never has a book gone into such clear detail on karma and dependent origination concepts which despite many references in contemporary culture are too often misunderstood here geshe sopa starts from the beginning with a faithful reading of the lamrim chenmo and in the end leaves readers with the proper tools for incorporating core buddhist concepts into their study teaching and practice about one thousand years ago the great indian pandit and yogi dipamkara shrijnana atisha was invited to tibet to re establish the buddhadharma which had been suppressed and corrupted for almost two centuries one of atisha s main accomplishments in tibet was his writing of the seminal text a lamp for the path to enlightenment in which he extracted the essence of all 84 000 teachings of the buddha and organized them into a clear step like arrangement that makes it easy for any individual practitioner to understand and practice the dharma this genre of teachings is known as lam rim or steps of the path and forms an essential part of every school of tibetan buddhism in this book his holiness the dalai lama gives a commentary to not only atisha s revolutionary work but also to lines of experience a short text written by lama tsongkhapa who was perhaps the greatest of all tibetan lam rim authors in bringing together atisha lama tsongkhapa and his holiness the dalai lama this book offers readers one of the clearest and most authoritative expositions of the tibetan buddhist path ever published and it is recommended for those at the beginning of the path the middle and the end this book is made possible by kind supporters of the archive who like you appreciate how we make these teachings freely available in so many ways including in our website for instant reading listening or downloading and as printed and electronic books our website offers immediate access to thousands of pages of teachings and hundreds of audio recordings by some of the greatest lamas of our time our photo gallery and our ever popular books are also freely accessible there please help us increase our efforts to spread the dharma for the happiness and benefit of all beings you can find out more about becoming a supporter of the archive and see all we have to offer by visiting our website thank you so much and please enjoy this book this volume offers a complete translation of the samyutta nikaya the connected discourses of the buddha the third of the four great collections in the sutta pitaka of the pali canon the samyutta nikaya consists of fifty six chapters each governed by a unifying theme that binds together the buddha s suttas or discourses the chapters are organized into five major parts the first the book with verses is a compilation of suttas composed largely in verse this book ranks as one of the most inspiring compilations in the buddhist canon showing the buddha in his full grandeur as the peerless teacher of gods and humans the other four books deal in depth with the philosophical principles and meditative structures of early buddhism they combine into orderly chapters all the important short discourses of the buddha on such major topics as dependent origination the five aggregates the six sense bases the seven factors of enlightenment the noble eightfold path and the four noble truths among the four large nikayas belonging to the pali canon the samyutta nikaya serves as the repository for the many shorter suttas of the buddha where he discloses his radical insights into the nature of reality and his unique path to spiritual emancipation this collection it seems was directed mainly at those disciples who were capable of grasping the deepest dimensions of wisdom and of clarifying them for others and also provided guidance to meditators intent on consummating their efforts with the direct realization of the ultimate truth the present work begins with an insightful general introduction to the samyutta nikaya as a whole each of the five parts is also provided with its own introduction intended to guide the reader through this vast ocean like collection of suttas to further assist the reader the translator has provided an extensive body of notes clarifying various problems concerning both the language and the mean
