what does it mean to have a heart how does it feel when a heart fails and what does it take to recover in a world beset by never ending crises personal and collective local and global is heartlessness the only option from the heart weaves together a personal narrative of a life threatening ailment with considerations of philosophy art and science to contemplate ultimate questions matters of life and death jeffrey l kosky recounts his brush with death the surgical repair of a congenital defect in his aortic valve his gradual recovery of everyday life and his struggle to find the heart to go on throughout it all to make sense of the experience he immerses himself in humanistic inquiry and medical science the histories of medicine cardiac surgery and knowledge of the human heart as well as the works of artists writers philosophers and theologians writing about the experience of being human from the precarious position of his own woundedness kosky shares hard earned perspectives on what matters most combining moving memoir encounters with major authors and artists and heartfelt reflections on the big questions of existence this elegantly written book is at once erudite and powerful it shows us why the heart in physical emotional and metaphorical senses helps us come to terms with sickness and health dying and living medicine instead of healing contributes to the disease progression and creates other diseases including other cancer what comes to you of good is from allah but what comes to you of evil o man is from yourself qur an an nisa 4 79 when person commits the sin a black spot appears on his heart and if he seeks forgiveness this black spot is removed and if he returns to sin the black spot grows until his heart becomes black and he will be doomed disease is an expiation of the sins in this book i have described 351 sins the sins involve the evil jinn demons possess the humans because of the sins revenge desire of control attraction sorcery evil eye anger fear and depression the most frequent sins denying or associating partners to allah the creator of all things cancer is a jinn demonic possession the anti cancer treatment excites the hidden evil jinn and the jinn spread more the disease additionally medicine creates other diseases due to the side effects doctors cannot help cannot remove your sins and make you sicker and die know for certain that when you break no one will heal you except you ibn al qayyim repentance from the sins is obligatory a trial is not sent down except due to a sin and it is not lifted except with repentance ali ibn abi talib demons are afraid of allah only our creator the ultimate cure is within the qur an ruqyah negative ions and prophetic medicine whoever abandons the qur an would abandon treating sickness and seeking healing through it the tao of islam is a rich and diverse anthology of islamic teachings on the nature of the relationships between god and the world the world and the human being and the human being and god focusing on gender symbolism sachiko murata shows that muslim authors frequently analyze the divine reality and its connections with the cosmic and human domains with a view toward a complementarity or polarity of principles that is analogous to the chinese idea of yin yang murata believes that the unity of islamic thought is found not so much in the ideas discussed as in the types of relationships that are set up among realities she pays particular attention to the views of various figures commonly known as sufis and philosophers since they approach these topics with a flexibility and subtlety not found in other schools of thought she translates several hundred pages most for the first time from more than thirty important muslims including the ikhwan al safa avicenna and ibn al arabi this book investigates how we should form ourselves in a world saturated with technologies that are profoundly intruding in the very fabric of our selfhood new and emerging technologies such as smart technological environments imaging technologies and smart drugs are increasingly shaping who and what we are and influencing who we ought to be how should we adequately understand evaluate and appreciate this development tackling this question requires going beyond the persistent and stubborn inside outside dualism and recognizing that what we consider our inside self is to a great extent shaped by our outside world inspired by various philosophers especially nietzsche peirce and lacan this book shows how the values goals and ideals that humans encounter in their environments not only shape their identities but also enable them to critically relate to their present state the author argues against understanding technological self formation in terms of making ourselves better stronger and smarter rather we should conceive it in terms of technological sublimation which redefines the very notion of human enhancement in this respect the author introduces an alternative more suitable theory namely technological sublimation theory tst estimate technology will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in philosophy of technology philosophy of the self phenomenology pragmatism and history of philosophy the open access version of this book available at taylorfrancis com books 9781003139409 has been made available under a creative commons attribution non commercial no derivatives 4 0 license
