this book discusses architectural excellence in islamic societies drawing on textual and visual materials from the aga khan documentation center at mit developed over more than three decades at the core of the discussion are the efforts processes and outcomes of the aga khan award for architecture akaa the akaa recognises excellence in architectural and urban interventions within cities and settlements in the islamic world which are continuously challenged by dramatic changes in economies societies political systems decision making and environmental requirements architectural excellence in islamic societies responds to the recurring question about the need for architectural awards arguing that they are critical to validating the achievements of professional architects while making their contributions more widely acknowledged by the public through analysis and critique of over sixty awarded and shortlisted projects from over thirty five countries this book provides an expansive look at the history of the akaa through a series of narratives on the enduring values of architecture architectural and urban conservation built environment sustainability and architectural pluralism and multiple modernities architectural excellence in islamic societies will appeal to professionals and academics researchers and upper level students in architectural history and theory and built environment related fields a chronological survey of 500 great buildings from turkish prehistoric cave dwellings to a 21st century tokyo store each building includes a photograph but the top 50 selections are double spreads captions provide specifications and brief history a long standing architect and academic dato ruslan khalid s memoir is an inspirational read particularly for late starters as he himself was he tells of his struggles betrayals lost loves and ultimately success he freely shares with us his very personal experiences and lets us in on never before told events and stories quest for architectural excellence is an engaging and fascinating account of one man s struggles and triumphs of his journey that has made him a world renowned and respected architect frank and engaging memoir of a world renowned malaysian architect insights into the little known profession of architecture architectural excellence is organized chronologically and serves as a visual lesson in architecture through the ages the buildings featured come from all over the world and include centers of worship public buildings places of business and homes each building includes a photograph with a double page spread for the top 50 selections captions provide specifications and brief histories this book is the first scientific study to focus on awards in architecture and the built environment investigating their exponential growth since the 1980s the celebration of excellence in architecture and related fields remains a phenomenon on which there is strangely little scientific scrutiny what is to be understood from the plethora of award winning projects award winning buildings and awarded professional practices in the built environment year after year glossy images partake in an intense ballet at every local regional national or international award ceremony and they are meant to embody proofs of architectural excellence however it is necessary to take a critical distance to question what awards are meant to embody symbolize and perhaps measure each of the 10 chapters in this volume is centered on one question related to themes as varied as the comparison of pritzker and nobel prizes the prix de rome the redefinition of quality through awards green awards and sustainability the multiplication of sustainable awards heritage awards architecture book awards the awarding of school architecture awards as mediations and awards as pedagogical devices many fields once consolidated have featured a sharp increase in related prizes the original data compiled and summarized in 4 appendices cover more than 150 award granting organizations in some 30 countries our inventory includes upwards of 24 000 prizes awarded at more than 3 100 events the earliest of which is the first instance of western architecture s seminal grand prix de rome in france in 1720 a history of contemporary architecture is thus written through press releases that praise the merits of the heroes as much as their works and achievements and while awards can be vehicles that propel architecture forward they can also be trojan horses in an era that is constantly on the lookout for event driven products small and big news and brand imaging
