for albee himself this is not surprising as this masterpiece is considered to be revolutionary and ambitious as well as scandalous and highly controversial at the same time the play which has been discussed so passionately gives us four almost unrelievably nasty people who for something like three and a half hours take part in a drunken orgy of backbiting bitchery humiliation verbal castration exposure and physical mauling hilfer 121 not only wanting to entertain the audience but also including social criticism albee makes use of essential themes which help to make people understand their situation and to make them realize the necessity to act in order to modify society in the course of this paper i am going to attempt to illustrate the importance of the american dream and to establish a connection to the topic of truth and illusion which can be understood as the basis of albee s concept to start with i will exemplify different aspects of the american dream and point out selected features of the characters that can be linked to the american dream in order to appreciate most of the professional criticism it is of the utmost importance to look at the issue of truth and illusion that is predominant in many parts of the play examining the subject matter of illusion i will concentrate on the imaginary son as well as the relationship between the guests nick and honey in a last step i am going to explain the issue of truth in the play by examining the killing of the imaginary son and the confession of nick and his wife examining selected scenes i will try to clarify the aspects albee criticizes and explain the requests the author has for many people the american dream is an ethos that grants everybody the opportunity to achieve life liberty and the pursuit of happiness declaration of independence the myths of success and virtue seem to be a goal americans have been striving to achieve for a long time dreams can be fulfilled by anybody no matter the social background through hard work and determination writing the play during the cold war in 1962 when the world was close to a nuclear war albee responded to the questioning of the patriotic beliefs which was an ongoing problem in the usa
