an exploration of the global growth and social and political impact of pentecostalism steven m studebaker proposes a pentecostal approach to a major christian doctrine the atonement the book moves pentecostal theology of the atonement from a primarily christocentric and crucicentric register to one that articulates the pneumatological and holistic nature of pentecostal praxis studebaker examines the irony of classical pentecostalism relying on the christocentrism of protestantism evangelical atonement theology to articulate its experience of the holy spirit as well as the pneumatological nature of pentecostal praxis he then develops a pentecostal theology of atonement based on the biblical narrative of the spirit of pentecost and returns to re imagine an expanded vision of pentecostal praxis based on the theological formation of the biblical narrative the result is a pentecostal atonement theology that shows the integrated nature of pneumatology creation and christology in the biblical narrative of redemption it gives theological expression to not only the pneumatological nature of pentecostal praxis but also the fundamental role of the holy spirit in the biblical narrative of redemption the book challenges popular western atonement theologies to re think their christocentrism and crucicentrism as well as their atomistic tendency to separate soteriology into objective christological and subjective pneumatological categories modern pentecostalism in america began around the turn of the twentieth century and most historians of this history have drawn from the available english language sources very few historians of american pentecostalism knew of source materials in the scandinavian languages of norwegian and swedish this present volume argues that american pentecostal history cannot be understood apart from both the texts and the people who participated in and contributed to the pentecostal movement in america including first generation immigrants from scandinavia and second generation scandinavian americans revising pentecostal history describes ways in which scandinavian americans have contributed to and played a role in the development of the pentecostal movement the volume presents crucial findings from rarely if ever used sources that inform how american pentecostalism is understood these findings prompt a revising of pentecostal history if you are like most pentecostals and charismatic believers you have probably heard the phrase the azusa street revival but how much do you know or how much have you heard about azusa street as a bible teacher and as a student of church history mary peninger became intrigued with the azusa street story azusa s story is one of the most powerful revivals in church history azusa street was a revival which radiated from a mission house which was a former livery stable azusa touched its world for jesus christ so powerful was the azusa street revival that its effects are still being felt today over 110 years later mary wanted to share the azusa street story with other believers she created and taught this short series of lessons as an introduction to azusa street this book is a brief look back a visit to the azusa street revival eyewitness to the power of the holy spirit experience the power and revelation of one of history's greatest spiritual revivals as if you were there yourself more than an observer or historian author frank bartleman participated in the azusa street revival and experienced the movement firsthand his insight into the events leading up to azusa the revival itself and the impact that resulted is perhaps the most detailed account of the falling of the holy spirit ever recorded your faith will explode as you read bartleman's challenging insights into faith filled living from his experiences at azusa street you will more fully understand the tribulations they faced the blessings they received the pentecostal movement that followed what god will do when desperate souls cry out for more of him azusa street is not a long forgotten story from thousands of years ago it was a twentieth century manifestation of the holy spirit and a movement that continues to endure today he who believes in me the works that i do he will do also and greater works than these he will do because i go to my father john 14:12
