now a major film from 20th century fox this is the first ever adaptation of arthur miller s twentieth century classic for the big screen set in the 17th century it famously mirrors the communist witch hunts of mccarthyism in 50s america a fascinating and disturbing dramatisation of the collective psychology of persecution it shows all too painfully how even a close knit rural community can be desolated once doubt and suspicion take hold arthur miller s classic parable of mass hysteria draws a chilling parallel between the salem witch hunt of 1692 one of the strangest and most awful chapters in human history and the mccarthyism which gripped america in the 1950s the story of how the small community of salem is stirred into madness by superstition paranoia and malice culminating in a violent climax is a savage attack on the evils of mindless persecution and the terrifying power of false accusations through the historic salem witch trials arthur miller examines an issue that still weighs heavily on the progress of american civilization the problem of guilt by association
