unknown craftsmen who laid out the text often by hand of each and every page you will read their subtle art involving judgment and interaction with the text is in many ways superior and more human than the mechanical methods utilized today and gave each book a unique hand crafted feel in its text that connected the reader organically to the art of bindery and book making we think these benefits are worth the occasional imperfection resulting from the age of these books at the time of scanning and their vintage feel provides a connection to the past that goes beyond the mere words of the text the books follow the biblical history of the world with special focus on the conflict between christ and satan the series starts with the pre creation rebellion of satan in heaven then moves on to the creation of the earth the fall of adam and eve into sin the old testament the birth and ministry of jesus until his ascension then the early christian church the dark ages the protestant reformation the last days of earth s history the second coming of christ the millennium and the destruction of sin and finally the recreation of earth and god s kingdom with man for eternity this progression explains in detail the sda understanding of the conflict between christ and satan and their understanding of the bible and much of world history she wrote the books based on her research of other authors and special information which she claimed to receive through visions from god the books thus include unique insights and concepts not found in other works of the time
