the erasmus reader extends this impact to the carrels and desks of beginning and advanced students of renaissance and reformation history this volume contains nineteen texts by the reformer philip melanchthon 1497 1560 most of them translated for the first time in english melanchthon s career as humanist and educator is illustrated by six academic lectures the augsburg confession of 1530 and occasional works on various topics reveal his efforts as a formulator and apologist for lutheranism his humanistic and theological interests combine in three works on ethics and theological anthropology an introduction outlines his life and the place of his thought in the reformation reading christian theology in the protestant tradition offers a distinctive approach to the value of classic works through the lens of protestantism while it is anachronistic to speak of christian theology prior to the reformation as protestant it is wholly appropriate to recognize how certain common protestant concerns can be discerned in the earliest traditions of christianity the resonances between the ages became both informative and inspiring for protestants who looked back to pre reformation sources for confirmation challenge and insight thus this book begins with the first christian theologians covering nearly 2000 years of theological writing from the didache justin martyr and origen to james cone josé míguez bonino and sallie mcfague five major periods of church history are represented in 12 key works each carefully explained and interpreted by an expert in the field early sixteenth century radical anabaptism emanated in swiss protest during huldrych zwingli s protest against the roman catholic church much like luther zwingli founded his reform effort on the premise that the bible was the sole arbiter of the christian faith sola scriptura and the sufficiency of the shed blood of christ for eternal salvation sola fide based on these two principles both zwingli and luther adopted the doctrine of the priesthood of the believer which recognized every believer s spirit empowered ability to read and interpret the bible radical adherents to zwingli first rejected the idea of infant baptism which zwingli continued to practice this led to the radical practice of the rebaptism of adults which was subsequently labeled as anabaptism these anabaptists also interpreted 1 corinthians 12 14 paul s description of the manifestation of the gifts of the holy spirit as the biblical format for conducting proper church this direction led zwingli and the city of zurich to outlaw the anabaptists and their practices which brought severe persecution and martyrdom this new edition provides a wealth of updated book information in a more accessible format volume one provides an overview of british and american fiction and poetry from beowulf and british folk ballads to the 20th century antihero and nonfiction novels it also presents concise introductions to the lives works and significance of each writer in the area annotated bibliographies and lists of key references provide added book selection guidance this edition also covers commonwealth literature and an expanded chapter on essays and criticism volume two covers american and british drama and world literature in english translation volume three presents general reference literature the social sciences and the arts isbn 0 83542 2145 8 v 1 isbn 0 8352 2146 6 v 2 isbn 0 8352 2147 4 v 3 75 00 each for use only in the library
