this superb debut hailed for its power compassion and elegance takes in the wide sweep of human experience from the last hours of a condemned man to the imaginary life of an aids patient to the first performance of a bizarre new symphony yann martel s stories are moving thought provoking and as inventive in form as they are timeless in content they display the startling mix of dazzle and depth that has made him an international phenomenon four stories by the booker prize winning author includes the facts behind the helsinki roccamatios the time i heard the private donald j ranking string concerto with one discordant violin by the american composer john morton manners of dying and the mirror machine each in its entirety written earlier in martel s career these tales display that startling mix of dazzle and depth that have made yann martel an international phenomenon from accounts of the holocaust to representations of aids to predictions of environmental disaster from hal lindsey s fundamentalist 1970s bestseller the late great planet earth to francis fukuyama's the end of history and the last man in 1992 the sense of apocalypse is very much with us in postmodern apocalypse richard dellamora and his contributors examine apocalypse in works by late twentieth century writers filmmakers and critics when canadian authors win prestigious literary prizes from the governor general's literary award to the man Booker prize they are celebrated not only for their achievements but also for contributing to this country's cultural capital discussions about culture national identity and citizenship are particularly complicated when the honorees are immigrants like michael ondatje carol shields or rohinton mistry then there is the case of yann martel who is identified both as canadian and as rootlessly cosmopolitan how have these writers' identities been recalibrated in order to claim them as representative canadians prizing literature is the first extended study of contemporary award winning canadian literature and the ways in which we celebrate its authors gillian roberts uses theories of hospitality to examine how prize winning authors are variously received and honoured depending on their citizenship and the extent to which they represent canadianness prizing literature sheds light on popular and media understandings of what it means to be part of a multicultural nation now celebrating its 16th year this eclectic anthology has become an established literary tradition each year more than 150 contributing editors people such as joyce carol oates and edward hirsch nominate the best short stories poems and essays from hundreds of small presses and magazines for inclusion in this anthology
