in his consideration of the language of the fashion magazine the structural analysis of descriptions of women's clothing by writers about fashion Barthes gives us a brief history of semiology at the same time he identifies economics as the underlying reason for the luxuriant prose of the fashion magazine calculating industrial society is obliged to form consumers who don't calculate if clothing's producers and consumers had the same consciousness clothing would be bought and produced only at the very slow rate of its dilapidation fashion never ceases to interest psychologists aestheticians and sociologists Roland Barthes however examined fashion from a new point of view using descriptions from magazines he uncovered a system of meaning and subjected it to semantic analysis on semiotics fashion and philosophy although it is appealing to think that fashion has taken a sharp turn away from conventions established in the industry over the past century and more is this really the case or are pioneering designs simply part of a cyclical revival of forgotten fashions looking at some of the most influential designers of the twentieth century vinken considers the politics and philosophies that have been the driving forces directing their sense of style vinken describes fashion zeitgeist as a trend characterized by representations of traces of the past she considers the key concepts behind designers such as yamamoto gaultier and lagerfeld the originality of yamamoto s multi layered look stems from his philosophy that it is the individual sum of experience that is important not the collective consequences of history martin margiela although he himself refuses to be photographed or appear in the public eye brings new individuality into fashion chanel under the direction of karl lagerfeld is viewed as the only fashion house to have remained fresh after 100 years yet is this success essentially proof of the self referential qualities fashion has adopted what inspired the fetish for labels at the end of the twentieth century answering these questions and many more this concise and thought provoking book shows how beauty gender sexuality commerce and dandyism have persisted in defining the fashion system imprévue et cependant régulière toujours nouvelle et toujours intelligible la mode n a cessé d intéresser les psychologues les esthéticiens les sociologues c est pourtant d un point de vue nouveau que roland barthes l interroge la saisissant à travers les descriptions de la presse il dévoile en elle un système de significations et la soumet pour la première fois à une véritable analyse sémantique comment les hommes font ils du sens avec leur vêtement et leur parole seminar paper from the year 2020 in the subject american studies literature grade 1 7 university of augsburg american studies course first ladies language english abstract this work will focus on the two latest first ladies michelle obama and melania trump not only do they give an overview of how republican and democrat first ladies eventually are depicted differently but both first ladies have a special connection to fashion the first lady of the united states or flotus is the president s wife s official title her position is a job with no rules or descriptions but she must fulfill duties including attending events giving speeches supporting her husband and being the mother of a nation unlike the president her job is not a paid one at first glance the first lady paints an outdated picture of wives as the mother of a nation the first lady is supposed to be a role model therefore magazines and news do frequently discuss the image of the president and the first lady those articles often focus on the flotus wardrobe which might signify the wife s perception as an ornament of her husband they discuss the wardrobe considering appropriateness and message flotus studies study what kind of position the first lady has but it also studies her position as a role model to what extent is the first lady a celebrity a politician and a us citizen involving information about american culture politics and feminism gossip magazines might at first glance appear to focus on unnecessary details however fashion studies show that clothes have more meaning to them than just protecting the body from the weather already in 1950 john carl flugel studied the psychology of clothes and discussed the purpose of clothes roland barthes followed ferdinand de saussure s theory on semiology to study fashion magazines and their clothes portrayal alison lurie extended fashion theory with an actual fashion vocabulary theorists like barthes have described fashion as a sign system but lurie specified how clothes talk fashion studies explain how clothes create and convey meaning furthermore they ask who the creator of this meaning is and how culture and politics participate in creating meaning through clothes fashion and political studies have been done before and play an essential role in studying the country that wears it after all fashion also participates in social change and is even change itself as malcolm barnard analyses therefore the question about the colors and shape of a clothing item is not petty but essential to understand a country
