huashan immortal gate chapter 31 luc nguyen continuously withdrew his changing aura it was an inhuman aura like a god or an immortal if he let the aura spread then mu bingyi was afraid that he would immediately discover that he was breaking through as time passed the life genes in his entire body had completely changed and were already perfect the tenth level of the chaos realm arrived wanting to attack the world realm was simple all the abilities in the life genes were explored not even a single one could be missing that was called the world realm because at that time it was the realm of gods and immortals of course wanting to unleash all the abilities in the genes to be more perfect than the genes was even more difficult in the end he stood at the tenth level of the chaos realm only needing to take one more step to reach the world realm reaching the world realm was truly becoming the overlord of a region in the central celestial dynasty
