matt has always been nothing but a clone an exact replica grown from a strip of old el patron s skin now age fourteen matt suddenly finds himself thrust into the position of ruling over his own country opium on the one time border between the us and mexico stretching from the ruins of san diego to the ruins of matamoros but while opium thrives the rest of the world has been devastated by ecological disaster and hidden somewhere in opium is the cure and that isn't all that's hidden within the depths of opium matt is haunted by the ubiquitous army of eejits zombie like workers harnessed to the old el patron's sinister system of drug growing people stripped of the very qualities which once made them human matt wants to use his newfound power to help stop the suffering but he can't even find a way to smuggle his childhood love maria across the border and into opium instead his every move hits a roadblock both from the traitors that surround him and from a voice within himself for who is matt really but the clone of an evil murderous dictator in a future where humans despise clones matt enjoys special status as the young clone of el patron the 142 year old leader of a corrupt drug empire nestled between mexico and the united states as the teenage ruler of his own country matt must cope with clones and cartels in this riveting sequel to the modern classic house of the scorpion winner of the national book award a newbery honor and a printz honor
