in this series of intricately related texts internationally known poet critic and performance artist david antin explores the experience of time how it s felt remembered and recounted these free form talk pieces sometimes called talk poems or simply talks began as improvisations at museums universities and poetry centers where antin was invited to come and think out loud serious and playful they move rapidly from keen analysis to powerful storytelling to passages of pure comedy as they range kaleidoscopically across antin's experiences in the new york city of his childhood and youth the eastern europe of family and friends and the new york and southern california of his art and literary career the author's analysis and abrasive comedy have been described as a mix of lenny bruce and ludwig wittgenstein his commitment to verbal invention and narrative as a fusion of mark twain and gertrude stein taken together these pieces provide a rich oral history of and critical context for the evolution of the california art scene from the 1960s onward so maybe it's the stakes if you kiss me in the snow i will always wait for you to call first if you trek out alone into the rugged wilderness to avenge your honor i am coming in after you this combined collection of short stories and literary essays by amber l carter gives voice to what we wish those who made their way into our hearts could have known and what we still need to know for ourselves after they've made their way out again with the glittering twin cities of minneapolis st paul and the quiet woods of northwest wisconsin serving as a backdrop to her chronicles of pounding love and crashing pain and that pretty ache carter's keen and unflinching observations of the intricacies of the human heart mixed with a complex vulnerability and a delightfully wry humor make each piece both intensely absorbing and startlingly familiar
