this book presents with the intimate freshness of a personal teaching the main practices of the mahayana buddhist path apparitions of the self is a groundbreaking investigation into what is known in tibet as secret autobiography an exceptional rarely studied literary genre that presents a personal exploration of intimate religious experiences in this volume janet gyatso translates and studies the outstanding pair of secret autobiographies by the famed tibetan buddhist visionary jigme lingpa 1730 1798 whose poetic and self conscious writings are as much about the nature of his own identity memory and the undecidabilities of autobiographical truth as they are narrations of the actual content of his experiences their translation in this book marks the first time that works of this sort have been translated in a western language gyatso is among the first to consider tibetan literature from a comparative perspective examining the surprising fit as well as the misfit of western literary theory with tibetan autobiography she examines the intriguing questions of why tibetan buddhists produced so many autobiographies far more than other asian buddhists and how autobiographical self assertion is possible even while buddhists believe that the self is ultimately an illusion also explored are jigme lingpa s historical milieu his revelatory visions of the ancient tibetan dynasty and his meditative practices of personal cultivation the book concludes with a study of the subversive female figure of the dakini in jigme lingpa s writings and the implications of her gender her sexuality and her unsettling discourse for the autobiographical subject in tibet in this rich and deeply personal account of life in the highlands of nepal geoff childs chronicles the daily existence of a range of people from venerated lamas to humble householders offering insights into the complex dynamics of the ethnically tibetan enclave of nubri childs provides a vivid and compelling portrait of the ebb and flow of life and death of communal harmony and discord and of personal conflicts and social resolutions part ethnography part travelogue and part biography tibetan diary is a one of a kind book that conveys the tangled intricacies of a tibetan society childs s immensely readable and informative narrative incorporates contemporary observations as well as vignettes culled from first person testaments including oral histories and autobiographies examining the tensions between cultural ideals and individual aspirations he explores certain junctures in the course of life how the desire to attain religious knowledge or to secure a caretaker in old age contrasts with social expectations and familial obligation for example the result is a vivid and unparalleled view of the quest for both spiritual meaning and mundane survival that typifies life in an unpredictable himalayan environment in 1992 the venerable palden gyatso was released after thirty three years of imprisonment by chinese forces in tibet he fled across the himalayas to india smuggling with him the instruments of his torture this powerful text is the story of his life and irrefutable testimony to the appalling suffering of the tibetan nation at the hands of the chinese in one of the most remote covert campaigns of the cold war the cia harnessed nurtured and encouraged the khampa tribesmen of tibet in their defiance against chinese subjugation this is the first time the story has been told publisher description

a tibetan patriot and unswerving follower of the dalai lama lobsang gyatso emerges from these memoirs as a master storyteller a fearless social critic and a devoted buddhist monk with unusual wit and realism he provides a picture of his country from the perspective of a common tibetan recounting his early life in kham as a herder and a rambunctious young monk his travels to lhasa his life in one of tibet s most famous monasteries and his flight into exile outspoken and critical of both himself and his society lobsang gyatso s memoirs tell the story of his struggle for personal religious transformation and his fight to create a new vision for his country
