i know that to the majority of people who merely regard the theatre as a place for occasional recreation it is a subject for amazement that others can exist who not belonging to the theatrical profession take an absorbing and lasting interest in the stage and in those actors and actresses who have made its past history glorious as well as in the artists who adorn and make it a delight in the present i wonder how many of us truly realise the weight of charles dickens s words if any man were to tell me that he denied his acknowledgments to the stage i would simply put to him one question whether he remembered his first play not only freely but with gratitude i acknowledge my indebtedness to the theatre and it is certain that from that magic night when for the first time i saw the glitter of the footlights and watched the rise of the curtain i entered upon a new and most fascinating life of course i was called stage struck and those who controlled me shook their heads thought it a great pity and did their best to thwart my inclinations
