identifying the theme of 1 peter as how the church is to witness responsibly in a non christian world boring emphasizes the necessity of a sympathetic historical understanding of those parts of the letter that collide with modern cultural values and understandings of what christian commitment and theology require he gives special attention as well to the narrative world within which this ancient writer operated and to the strong affirmation of ecumenism implicit in the letter s amalgamation of traditions stemming from peter and paul respectively through the years professor boring has shown himself to be a master of technical exegesis and theology wedded to great pastoral concern these twin talents are fittingly brought to bear on a new testament document that shows the same union of rich theology and pastoral care indeed the sober centrist yet moving commentary squares perfectly with the sober centrist yet moving document that is 1 peter if this commentary is a popularization then it is a popularization of very high caliber a tremendous amount of research and insight is made available and intelligible to a wide public this commentary is not just a rehash of what everyone else has said on 1 peter the innovative appendix detailing the narrative world of 1 peter is alone worth the price of admission all in all an excellent contribution to present day literature on an often neglected book of the new testament john p meier the catholic university of america washington d c crisis in the church is not a new phenomenon in fact the church has always been and probably always will be involved in some kind of crisis even in the apostolic period which is regarded by many as the church s golden age there were serious crises coming both from the outside as in 1 peter and from the inside as in jude and 2 peter the three short new testament letters treated in 1 peter jude and 2 peter illustrate the problems early christians faced as well as the rhetorical techniques and theological concepts with which they combated those problems in the first part of this volume donald senior views 1 peter as written from rome in peter s name to several churches in northern asia minor present day turkey in the latter part of the first century c e the new christians addressed in 1 peter found themselves aliens and exiles in the wider greco roman society and suffered a kind of social ostracism but they are given a marvelous theological vision of who they have become through their baptism and pastoral encouragement to stand firm they are shown how to take a missionary stance toward the outside world by giving the witness of a holy and blameless life to offset the slander and ignorance of the non christian majority and possibly even to lead them to glorify god on the day of judgment in the second part of this volume daniel harrington interprets jude and 2 peter as confronting crises in the late first century that were perpetrated by christian teachers who are described polemically as intruders in jude and as false teachers in 2 peter in confronting the crises within their churches the authors appeal frequently to the old testament and to early summaries of christian faith while jude uses other jewish traditions 2 peter includes most of the text of jude as well as many distinctively greek terms and concepts it is clear that for the authors despite their different social settings what was at stake was the struggle for the faith daniel j harrington sj is a professor of new testament at weston jesuit school of theology in cambridge massachusetts and general editor of new testament abstracts he is a past president of the catholic biblical association of american and the editor of the sacra pagina series he also wrote the gospel of matthew in the sacra pagina series donald senior cp is a professor of new testament studies and president of catholic theological union in chicago he was recently appointed by pope john paul ii to the pontifical biblical commission general editor of the bible today he also co edited the collegeville pastoral dictionary of the bible and the 22 volume international commentary series new testament message and he wrote the four volume the passion series published by the liturgical press one of the general or catholic epistles near the end of the new testament this letter traditionally attributed to the apostle peter contains important ideas and reveals a fascinating relationship to the surrounding literary world the book shows what problems christians faced at the time the epistle was written and how the author addressed them the commentary discusses the greek original with translation verse by verse this book is a different kind of commentary rather than being the work of one or two individual scholars it is the result of the collaboration of twenty one contributors and others who assisted at all stages of production the first letter of peter itself appears to be the product of collaboration of early christian leaders who sought to encourage those who were suffering for the name of christ christians in today s world are faced with the same challenge and we trust that this collaborative commentary will encourage them as they seek to follow in the steps of christ
