Cromwell, a man with only his wits to rely on, has no great family to back him, no private army, despite rebellion at home, traitors plotting abroad, and the threat of invasion testing Henry's regime to the breaking point. Cromwell's robust imagination sees a new country in the mirror of the future: all of England lies at his feet, ripe for innovation and religious reform. But as fortune's wheel turns, Cromwell's enemies are gathering in the shadows, the inevitable question remains: how long can anyone survive under Henry's cruel and capricious gaze? Eagerly awaited and eight years in the making, The Mirror and The Light completes Cromwell's journey from self-made man to one of the most feared influential figures of his time. Portrayed by Mantel with pathos and terrific energy, Cromwell is as complex as he is unforgettable: a politician and a fixer, a husband and a father, a man who both defied and defined his age.
