the bible says that in the last days people would have a form of godliness but deny its power 2 timothy 3 the power denied is that required for true conversion i e transformation this book is meant to affirm those that profess the christian faith that when we are justified by christ in the process of salvation it comes with the power of the holy spirit who indwells us and seals us his power leads to a compulsory sanctification as evidence of true salvation because the goal of god in the beginning remains the same which is to create man in his own image transformation is the mandatory process of the holy spirit conforming us into the spiritual and moral likeness of christ and it is completed only when we are glorified in heaven once liberal christianity was preached in ways that defined it in the public eye now christianity is identified almost exclusively with its conservative expressions seasons of the christian life presents a series of sermons articulating a liberal christianity over against its conservative neighbors they were preached at the university church marsh chapel at boston university save for one preached in memorial church at harvard during the 2004 2005 academic year when president george w bush was reelected and the country was at war in iraq and afghanistan and at war with terrorists wherever they could be imagined the sermons follow the revised common lectionary and focus on biblical interpretation as it is applied to the then current spiritual cultural social and political situation the author is a professor of theology and at the time was dean of marsh chapel and chaplain of the university

one and the chief design of this volume is to exhibit and illustrate the practical character of our lord s emotional nature thus linking him in closer and more personal actuality with our circumstances every endeavor to bring into more proximate communion the personality of christ and the individuality of the christian cannot fail however imperfect the execution to promote the holiest interests of experimental christianity much that passes for sympathy and is really so as commonly understood is deficient in this one essential element and needs to be remodeled there is poetry and there is beauty in real sympathy but there is more there is action true sympathy may exist impotent to aid we concede and its silent expression may not in some instances be the less grateful and soothing but the noblest and most powerful form of sympathy is not merely the responsive tear the echoed sigh the answering look it is the embodiment of the sentiment in actual help it identifies itself with the object of its commiseration so personally and so closely as to realize the apostle s beautiful idea of true sympathy remember those who are in bonds as bound with them and those who suffer adversity as being yourselves also in the body this was preeminently the character of christ s compassion when on earth he was willing himself to wear the chain he came to loose to share the sorrow he came to soothe and the remembrance that he was likewise in the body constantly forced itself upon his mind imparting to his deep sensibility and tender compassion the power and the luster of an actual and personal participation in the calamities he repaired the needs he met and the griefs he assuaged thus from his practical sympathy who is the great teacher of the church and the consolation of israel may we derive lessons of holy instruction and streams of the richest comfort to aid this object the present volume is with diffidence offered to the christian church composed under the pressure of important ministerial extended pastoral and continuous public labor it necessarily partakes of the imperfections of a work thus written and often at a season when the jaded powers both of mind and body demanded the restorative of sleep but if the lame take the prey the author may humbly hope that this lowly attempt to present the savior more vividly to the personal realization of the reader and thus render him more loved and precious and his example more closely studied and imitated will not be without acceptance and blessing to the one church of god the sorrowing suffering body of a divine and sympathizing head the triune jehovah bless the work and to the sacred three in one shall be the glory amen
