there are many rules a priest can t break a priest cannot marry a priest cannot abandon his flock a priest cannot forsake his god i ve always been good at following rules until she came then i learned new rules my name is tyler anselm bell i m twenty nine years old six months ago i broke my vow of celibacy on the altar of my own church and god help me i would do it again i am a priest and this is my confession rock of pages provides contexts and close readings of 1980s heavy metal with forty years of hindsight drawing upon analytical frameworks usually associated with literature and literary studies based on decades of work as a professor of literature and as a musician jesse kavadlo analyzes the ways in which 1980s heavy metal aligns with and develops many of the themes prevalent in the canon of literature in doing so the book examines some of the contexts of 1980s heavy metal including cold war the rise of mtv and the formation of the parents music resource center pmrc and subsequent congressional hearings rock of pages takes the pmrc s own objections to heavy metal and uses them as titles and topics to analyze the intersections between heavy metal and literature representations of violence but the connected concerns about justice images of substance abuse and the interrelated issues of obsession madness suicidal ideation sex and love with concomitantly representations of women and relationships between men and women and the references to the occult with the depictions of satan the afterlife and morality on earth itself in doing so the book suggests that 1980s heavy metal displayed more artistry and intelligence than people imagine but that literature is rebellious and subversive as well this book contains multiple essays from experts on various faith religious and mythic traditions to describe how humor was discussed addressed and portrayed in those specific traditions the anthology decapitation and sacrifice is the result of an interdisciplinary project on the phenomenon of the decapitated head of saint john the baptist in its exegorical context in the material culture of the middle ages and the renaissance and finally in more recent approaches regarding medium studies several specialists and scholars from these fields were invited to share their most recent conclusions thus contributing to our understanding of one of the most peculiar events artifacts and phenomena in west the rise and fall of a male head as subject of martyrdom devotion and artistic expression what emerges from these collected essays is a nuanced understanding of the beheading and presentation of saint john we begin with the biblical account already finding multiple layers of exegorical meaning with a focus on john as a christ figure as the narrative is adapted into other textual and visual forms its symbolism is transformed deepened or extended in new ways relating to medieval and early modern spirituality morality performance and representation what john s disembodied head symbolically embodies shifts as we move from one medium to another and from one geographic region to another and within those broader categories meaningful distinctions can be made between differences in details such as the presence or absence of a platter the use of specific terminology the contents of inscriptions the characterization of herodias and her daughter specifics of stage directions even the parting of john s beard and the portrayal of his eyes as open or closed or half closed to name but a few the close analysis of these and other details that the contributors to this volume provide tell us both about the symbolic potential of john s beheading and about how the textual and visual objects studied here functioned in medieval and early modern communities written in 1782 the marquis de sade s dialogue between a priest and a dying man dialogue entre un prêtre et un moribond is a classic anti clerical blast of radical atheism expressing the loathing of religion and piety for which sade was renowned after a protracted debate the priest succumbs to an orgy with six nude prostitutes this special ebook edition also includes sade s short story of clerical corruption retaliation in god s dispensation and economy the leading ministry is the priesthood in this universe god has an administration a divine economy his economy is the way he arranges or dispenses therefore it is a kind of dispensation according to the bible there are three main ministries in god s divine dispensation the priesthood the kingship and the prophethood the priesthood is the leading ministry of the three and brings the kingship and prophethood into function in other words both the kingship and the prophethood depend upon the leading ministry of the priesthood a priest is conducting the funeral service for a beloved member of his congregation but when he lifts the chalice to his lips he dies suddenly and horribly poisoned by the blood of christ who would want to murder a parish priest in such a way and who could get access to the closely guarded communion wine lieutenant eve dallas is called to the scene to investigate although initially there seems to have been nothing out of the ordinary about the priest s life there is something about the situation that just doesn t add up and then she starts to uncover the evil lurking behind the ceremonial robes the dead priest was not who he seemed to be he harboured a dark deadly secret that could bring eve s own demons rushing back in the wake of a munich writer s assassination mossad agent gabriel allon and vatican priest pietro embark on dangerous journeys that reveal long buried secrets affecting the fates of millions of people the beloved archbishop sheen whose cause for canonization is open in rome presents a profound and deeply spiritual look at the meaning of the priesthood and relationship of the priest with christ as an alter christus sheen delves deeply into what he considers the main character of the priesthood and one not often discussed that of being like christ a holy victim to be like christ sheen emphasizes that the priest must imitate christ in his example of sacrifice offering himself as a victim to make his incarnation continually present in the world unlike anyone else our lord came on earth not to live but to die death for our redemption was the goal of his sojourn here the gold that he was seeking he was therefore not primarily a teacher but a savior was not christ the priest a victim he never offered anything except himself so we have a mutilated concept of our priesthood if we envisage it apart from making ourselves victims in the prolongation of his incarnation bishop fulton sheen
