only love lasts forever for most of laila diaz s life nothing has gone as planned but now things are finally looking up on her last day working for child services she s scheduled to deliver an orphaned infant to his new legal guardian grumpy scottish billionaire marcus campbell it s immediately clear that while marc is capable and gorgeous he s also in need of a nanny especially with a six week family retreat on the horizon laila s out of a job so she offers to step in the seductive billionaire seems almost too perfect and his smoldering looks have her dreaming of hot kisses under the tropical sun too bad he s her boss marc has never met a woman as caring sincere and sexy as laila there s something special about her the way she looks at him touches him laughs with him he s falling and falling hard for both her and their new addition even as they enjoy paradise together the real world still looms over them ready to burst the happy bubble of their romantic affair when the cruise ends can marc prove to laila that they can build something new something that can last forever something more than just a fantasy

star quarterback marcus kingston lives and breathes football he's trusted his abilities and instincts to get him this far but an injury last season nearly ended his career when his coaches want him to wear biofeedback technology to analyze his game marcus thinks the idea is ridiculous plus the mousy scientist behind the project knows nothing about sports and she quickly gets under his skin but with another qb waiting on the sidelines marcus can either agree to participate or be benched permanently scientist clare wynifred values intellect above most things with her brain constantly working she has little interest in her appearance and zero interest in sports she never imagined her wearable tech being used to improve someone's game but its success with the team could get her a military contract clare may be too late to save her brother but her technology could save the lives of countless soldiers she just has to make it work with the stubborn quarterback and she'll be one step closer to her goal marcus and clare butt heads at first but their mutual attraction quickly grows and yet with everything to lose it's easy to ignore that together they might be able to go the distance after being ditched by his fiancée before they'd even reached the altar, Prince Aldon of Sovalon heads to his quiet secluded thistle-down castle to lick his wounds and try to find some peace. Instead, he finds his gorgeous groundskeeper, Piper McKenzie, and her five-year-old not-so-quiet daughter, Willa. Though he thought he was longing for solitude, Aldon finds himself delightfully distracted by Piper again and again. Piper is not only beautiful, she's loving, caring, and opening his eyes to things he'd never noticed before. Single mother Piper loves her idyllic country life with Willa taking care of thistle-down castle and working on the gardens. Aldon's arrival turns everything topsy-turvy. It's been a long time since a man has turned her head, and Aldon has hers spinning like a top despite her instant attraction. Piper reminds herself that Aldon is a prince and doesn't seem to be a fan of kids, definitely not the man for her. Princes don't marry groundskeepers; they marry the type of woman he used to be engaged to. The same woman Aldon's father is insisting he reconcile with. Though Piper might be falling in love, she's smart enough to realize a fairy tale ending is not for her. Secretly, though, she's hoping this prince charming proves her wrong.

To Stephanie Sugarman, Charlie Preston is just the bad-boy billionaire who rejected his own son six years ago. She and Charlie had an admittedly hot one-night stand which left her pregnant when she tracked down his family. His mother offered her money to go away, now, however, Stephanie's forced to spend time with Charlie as her boss's liaison while Charlie crunches the numbers for a potential acquisition. At first, she can't stand to be in the same room as the charming brilliant businessman, but as time goes on, she realizes the man she believed him to be, and the man she sees now, are completely different. This Charlie is honorable, charming, and most importantly, would never abandon his son, and he seems determined to prove to her that he's worthy of her heart. Even though he and Stephanie only spent one incredible night together, Charlie has never been able to get her out of his mind. Now that he's working with her, he has the chance to make things right to prove he's someone she and their son can trust. He'll approach fatherhood the same way he approaches everything in life, with a detailed, meticulous plan. What he doesn't anticipate is fiercely independent Stephanie, who gets a bit prickly when he tries to lay out a future for them. The problem is, planning is what Charlie does best, but he learns too late that all the planning in the world can't make her stay with him. He'll have to ditch his plan and follow his heart, no matter where it leads.

Former Navy SEAL Michael Rinaldi has one rule: no second chances. So when Nicole Zito, his beautiful ex, hires his security firm to keep her safe after witnessing a murder, Michael convinces himself he'll be fine. Single mom Nicole may have been the love of his life, but he's confident he can protect her along with his own broken heart. Then Nicole receives a disturbing email threatening both her and her young son, and Michael's protective instincts kick into overdrive. But protecting Nicole means spending time with her, and ignoring his heart is turning out to be a lot tougher than he thought. Nicole still has feelings for Michael, but she knows he's the best man for the job. Still, she never expected how perfect it would feel to be with him again, tucked away in a quiet cabin with Michael and her son. It almost feels like they're a real family. It's everything she ever wanted, but she's afraid their fragile bond will soon come to an end. She's falling hard for this sexy SEAL. Can she convince him their love is worth a second chance?

Grumpy old-school quarterback Marcus doesn't want or need mousy scientist Claire's help. Star quarterback Marcus Kingston lives and breathes football until an injury on the field nearly ends his career. When his coaches want him to wear biofeedback technology to analyze his game, Marcus thinks the idea is ridiculous. Plus, the quirky scientist behind the project knows nothing about sports. But with another quarterback waiting on the sidelines, Marcus can either agree to participate or get benched permanently. Scientist Claire Wynifred has zero interest in sports; she never imagined her wearable tech being used to improve a silly game. But its success with the team could get her a military contract, and she knows a breakthrough like that could save the lives of countless soldiers, like her brother who was injured in the line of duty. She just has to work with this stubborn quarterback, and she'll be one step closer to her goal. Marcus and Claire butt heads at first, but their mutual attraction quickly heats up the field still with everything on the line will their romance have what it takes to go the distance

he doesn't need but when he goes to check on the boy left behind by the death of his business partner's ex-wife Slade meets Bethany Simmons. This computer programmer is smart as a whip and beautiful as well and Slade can't help but take notice when Bethany contacted Slade's security to let them know of her sister's death. She never thought it would be Slade who would show up with his tanned skin, salt and pepper hair, and ripped body. One look at Slade makes her go weak in the knees but despite her attraction, Bethany's not going to let anyone take her nephew away from her. Not even a silver fox like Slade. Bethany's determined to find a way to adopt her nephew but as the simmering attraction between her and Slade grows, a dark secret is revealed and it just might change both their lives forever.

Billionaire friends find love and laughter with three quirky and charming women in Leslie North's latest sexy trilogy. Life can be tough as a billionaire, just ask friends Grayson, Daniel, and Blake. All that money doesn't keep them warm at night, make them laugh, or love them back, but that's fine with them until it isn't. Grayson's focused like a laser on his business but life changes quickly when one night of passion with a beautiful boutique owner leaves him with an unexpected little bundle of joy. Daniel's closest relationship is with his exotic fish until he convinces a woman he only knows from a series of flirty notes to be his fake girlfriend and they share one incredible kiss. And after his buddies bet him he can't go on more than five dates with a woman, Blake wonders if giving up his freedom might be the best thing he's ever done as he gets to know single mother Michelle. Billionaire boyfriends can be so difficult. Mila, Jackie, and Michelle couldn't care less about all that money or even having a man in their lives but when circumstances work to bring them together, having a sexy billionaire nearby turns out to be a good thing, a really good thing. Three gorgeous billionaires, fake relationships, unexpected babies, and an instant family make this trilogy a not-to-miss read. A thorn from USA Today bestselling author Leslie North.

USA Today bestseller Leslie North invites you to indulge in a steamy billionaire romance with an unforgettable bad boy billionaire and the smart talking woman who tames him. Billionaire Anthony Charles Harrington V. Everything is about business, including marriage. All he needs is a society wife who will give him an heir, and he's completely prepared to marry a woman he doesn't love or desire to secure his fifth generation company's future. Until he meets Diana Tinsley. She's quirky and the kind of free spirit he's looking to spend time with before he settles down. Using all his considerable charm, he convinces Diana to have a one-week fling, just a lark with no strings attached. But when Diana shows up at his door two months later, he realizes their no-strings affair will have long-term consequences. Diana is pregnant. Nothing could be more perfect. He'll get his heir, get his wife, and focus on his business. He just needs to get Diana to agree to a marriage of convenience. Diana is reluctant about the marriage idea at first. She can't imagine giving up her job as a nurse to become a society wife, but eventually, her practical side wins out. Her child will have a secure future, and she'll be able to continue her life as usual. She doesn't count on her attraction to Tony, which was already fierce, growing even hotter. Worse, she thinks she might be falling in love, which was totally against their agreement. This marriage of convenience isn't turning out to be as convenient as she'd thought it would. Just when she believes the two of them might have a real marriage, Tony brutally reminds her that love is not an option. But running away doesn't seem like a workable solution to her problems, or is it?

When King Bashar Halabi finds out he's guardian to a recently orphaned girl, he welcomes her into his palace. But he's stunned when the girl turns out to be a twenty-seven-year-old American beauty, Fiona Nadide. According to a secret stipulation in her father's will, Fiona will not obtain her inheritance and be free from guardianship unless she marries before her 28th birthday. But to Fiona, arranged marriages are archaic. She has absolutely no intention of getting married, and certainly not to a man handpicked by Bashar. The truth is the only man she's interested in is her smoldering guardian. As his ward, Fiona is strictly off-limits to Bashar, and his advisors would be shocked if they knew where his thoughts about Fiona were drifting. Problem is, Bas can't stop wishing he could have her for himself.
