this is a book in which the writer tried to reassert the relationship of literature to modern life he believes that this relationship was the pre occupation of writers in the 1920s and 1930 but that since then literature has become increasingly split into the writing of the new academics and that of aggressive anti intellectuals he things that contemporary criticism should be on a much wider basis and take into account the history and the society in which we live as well as the abstract principles which recent

critics have evolved the first unclassified account of the armed forces of one of the most isolated and unpredictable nations in asia north korea in this book author has tried to make it clear with the reference of islamic scriptures that the word islam is the negation of the concept of violence it is neither a religion of violence nor violence is integral to this religion islam means surrender to the will of god in the one hand and establishing peace on the other the word for peace in arabic is salam when muslim greet each other they invoke peace salam alaykum peace be on you thus it is a religious duty of muslim to strive for establishment of peace in society a muslim is one who surrender to the will of allah and an establisher of peace thus islam means establishment of peace and muslim means establisher of peace through his action and conduct
