practicing human values in our daily lives implies organizing one s life in such a way that all our thoughts words and actions may result in harmony with our set of interpersonal relationships it entails principles morality and ethical assets a thought is like the seed we plant the sprout is the result of our work and the tree or the fruit is the final manifestation so every human life may become a reflection of the divine the choice is totally ours life values are the main arteries to reach the goal of life after a sincere evaluation of one's life establishing one's own philosophy each one of us is to truly accept one's own responsibilities to practice human values is to accept full responsibility for one's own life this gives us the power to move forward grow and become truly independent and free of the thousands of books in the modern spiritual marketplace few state their message both simply and profoundly as this awakening to consciousness combining sense of humor bewilderment and the wisdom of eastern philosophy sandra heber percy presents a readable and compelling worldview that speaks directly to the reader's mind heart and soul she points the way to true happiness for those who have struggled or are struggling to find peace of mind and with her own story points out in a very subtle way never becoming a teacher but by the example of her life that surrendering our idea of control over life is the path to fulfillment awakening to consciousness could change readers lives if they ponder deeply on its contents
